ALAMEDA MAN SETS HOME ON FIRE; JAILED

Keeps Neighbors From Entering Burning Building

Fred Westphal Threatens Firemen Who Answer Alarm

ALAMEDA, Sept. 11.—Because, it is alleged, he was angry at his wife when she refused to return to him ninety-nine shares in the Westphal Company, Fred Westphal made all preparations last night and set fire to their home at 744 Santa Clara avenue.

After consulting with the district attorney's office today, Chief of Police Dan Conrad decided that it would be impossible to charge Westphal with arson and he booked the prisoner for drunkenness. Westphal's bail was fixed at $10, and up to 3 o'clock this afternoon he was still being detained.

Westphal had been drinking heavily yesterday and went to his home. His wife was in San Francisco and he started to set fire to the house. He took a can of automobile oil and saturated the rugs in the front room and dining-room.

He then lit paper high in the front room, and set fire to it. Neighbors saw the flames in the room and went to the Westphal home. They were met at the door by Westphal and he kept them off with a butcher knife.

An alarm was sounded and the police and fire department were called. Westphal held the firemen away for a time, threatening them with the butcher knife. The arrival of Police George Daly and Louis Servente put a stop to the blockade and Westphal was placed under arrest. The fire had done but little damage, the principal loss being occasioned by the saturating the rugs with oil.

POLICE INTERFERE. Westphal was taken to the police station, where he held all night. This morning his wife and mother-in-law called at the police station to see him. He commenced abusing his wife and the police closed the interview.

Westphal was arrested about ten days ago in Oakland on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. The charge is still pending. Westphal claiming that he will fight it.

He is a son of the late J. C. Westphal, a pioneer flour-mill owner of Oakland. When Westphal died he left a large estate, estimated at $1,600,000. Five brothers were each given 100 shares in the mill. Since that time the estate has been incorporated as the Westphal Company.

In an interview in the local jail this morning Westphal declared that he had given his wife ninety-nine shares of his stock and that she refused to return it to him when he asked her to.

SPENDS MONEY LIKE WATER. Westphal's life history reads much like that of Brewster of "Brewster's Millions" fame. "I spent money just as if it was water," he said. "When I cannot spend it I give it away. Whenever I take an automobile out it costs me large sums. One time I ran into a bridge at San Lorenzo junction. I received a big bill for repairs. Another time I was crossing railroad tracks and broke both wheels. That cost me more money. Then an attorney sued me for $2500 for legal services in connection with my father's estate. I was trying to break the trust clause. I could have had my father declared an incompetent. I am going to fight this case. They cannot accuse me of arson. That would not burn. I will not wear stripes and I will fight all attempts to hold me behind bars."

Westphal is well known in Alameda, where he has resided for some years.

RUSSIAN DEFEAT TURNS INVADERS OF PRUSSIA BACK

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11, 1:30 p. m.—In a dispatch from Copenhagen the correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company says that General von Beneckendorff and von Hindenburg has defeated the left flank of the Russian army in East Prussia with his eastern army, and thereby opened the way for an attack on the enemy's rear.

The Russians are said to have abandoned their resistance and to be in full retreat with the German eastern army pursuing them in a northeasterly direction toward Memel.

CONCENTRATION IS SUCCESSFUL.

By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, Sept. 11.—German troops which have been transported from the west have concentrated along the banks of the river Alle and are now marching in an eastwardly direction, crossing the Maurie Lakes. The Russian advance guard is retreating to the east.

SOCIETY MAN SOUGHT ON SWINDLE CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—Various reports were received today by the district attorney's office concerning the supposed whereabouts of Eugene E. Hewlett, the promoter, reputed millionaire and society man, accused of swindling operations aggregating many thousands of dollars. Running down several reports, detectives were set at work in Chicago, Portland, Ore., and El Paso. Hewlett is charged specifically with having defrauded Reginald Gernon, an invalid of the British army of a sum aggregating $24,000, but in addition to this agents of the district attorney's office are investigating the promoters dealing with Howard Huntington, son of Henry E. Huntington, the railway magnate, the Wenban sisters of San Francisco, and Walter Magee of the same city.

In the cases of Gernon and Magee, Hewlett is alleged to have induced the transfer of property in return for annuities, which were soon after defaulted.

WIFE OAKLAND GIRL.

The deals concerning the Wenban sisters and Huntington involved real estate aggregating more than $1,000,000. Huntington is said to be empty solvent, while, according to reports given out by the district attorney's office, bonds issued on the Wenban property is Hewlett left here a month ago. He left Mrs. Hewlett, a former Oakland society belle, who entertained lavishly at Pasadena, in Denning, N. M., and went on to Chicago. Since then, nothing definite has been learned concerning Hewlett's whereabouts. Business associates reported him variously in Chicago, Portland and El Paso.

The complaint filed says that Hewlett's reputation as a man of great wealth induced Gernon, who was seriously injured in the Boer war and believed himself about to die, to turn over all his property to Hewlett two years ago. In return for an annuity of $20 a month to Mrs. Gernon, the agreement was made for several months and then discontinued. Gernon's attorneys have been unable to find that Hewlett has any property in Los Angeles.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Hewlett is well remembered in Oakland society, where he was prominent several years ago. His wedding to the beautiful Irene Fore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fore, was one of the important social events of about three years ago.

Miss Fore was one of the popular society girls of this side of the bay. She is a sister of Mrs. James K. Moffitt, and her other two sisters, Miss Genevieve Fore and Miss Natalie Fore, are now prominent in the company set. They resided in the company set. They resided in the company set.

CZAR OCCUPIES OTHER TOWNS.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 11, via Paris. 5:55 a. m.—It is announced here that Russian troops hold the Austrian towns of Suczawa and Hatna, situated fifty miles south of Czernowitz, the capital of the Austrian province of Bukovina.

SERB ARMY CROSSES DANUBE.

NISH, Serbia, Sept. 11, via London. 8:14 a. m.—The Servians occupied Semblin, across the river from Belgrade, this morning after a bloody battle.

Semlin is an important town of Austria-Hungary in Slavonia. It is located on the tongue of land formed by the junction of the Danube and the Save, opposite Belgrade, Serbia, with which it was connected by a railroad bridge across the Save. It was from Semlin that the Austrian infantry and artillery, in conjunction with the monitors on the river, began their fighting on July 29 against the Servians. The Servians early that morning blew up the bridge connecting Semlin with Belgrade. An intermittent bombardment, according to reports, has since been kept up by the Austrians in Semlin on Belgrade.

Austrians Demoralized; Russian Generals Repeat

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11.—A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd says: "Although some of the Austrian army corps in the province of Lublin will probably make good their retreat, official dispatches describe the rout of General Donk and von Auenburg in such a way as to warrant the inference that the enemy is hopelessly beaten. "Large German forces have been detained at Tchanstschow and to the eastward, the stream of German troops continues." A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Nish dated Friday says that the Montenegrins have captured Fojcha and effected a junction with the Servians operating near Visegrad. The combined troops, it is stated, have now begun a march on Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia.

Koenigsberg Bombarded; Crown Prince Sent East

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11.—A dispatch to the Post from Copenhagen states that reports have been received there from Berlin that the Russians are bombarding Koenigsberg, the strong German fortress in East Prussia, and that part of the city is in flames. According to a Petrograd dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company it is believed that the German crown prince has been appointed commander-in-chief of the forces against Russia.

Germans Continue Evacuation of Upper Alsace, Report

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11.—A Central News dispatch from Rome says that telegrams from Berlin state that the evacuation of Upper Alsace by the Germans continues. They are withdrawing to Strasbourg and Metz. It is admitted that the German army in France is extremely fatigued, whereas the enemy is continually receiving fresh troops. Reuter's Telegram Co. has a dispatch from its correspondent at Petrograd which says that the German army is retreating in a northeasterly direction toward Memel.

TURKISH MINISTER OF WAR HAS DUEL WITH CROWN PRINCE

PARIS, Sept. 11.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Rome says: "A telegram from Athens to the newspaper Vita says that a violent discussion arose between the crown prince of Turkey and Enver Pasha, the Turkish minister of war, on the subject of the political policy of Turkey. "Enver Pasha, becoming greatly excited, fired two shots from a revolver at the prince, who was slightly wounded. The prince replied and shot Enver Pasha in the leg. "According to another version, Enver Pasha has since died of the wounds received in the duel with the crown prince."

ATROCITIES IN BELGIUM ARE CHARGED TO GERMANS

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A partial list of the alleged German atrocities in Belgium, against which the Belgian king has sent a protest to President Wilson, was made public today by Count Louis de Lichtenvelde, secretary of the Belgian commission bearing the protest. The commission reached this city today on its way to Washington. "At Linsmeau, when the Germans entered the village, two uniformed gendarmes attacked the Germans," the count said. "In revenge the village was invaded on the night of August 19. Every farm was destroyed, the crops were destroyed or carried away, six houses were burned, and all the men were compelled to hand over their arms. "It was found that none had been discharged recently and finally the men were separated into three detachments. Two of the detachments disappeared. A third, consisting of eleven men, was driven at the point of the bayonet into a ditch, and when they were piled in, the German soldiers set on them and beat their brains out with the butt ends of their rifles. The eleven battered (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

Poincare Says Kaiser Shifts Responsibility

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—President Poincare of France has cabled to President Wilson a reply to the protest of Emperor William which charged that the allies had been using dum-dum bullets. The French president declared in his message that Emperor William was attempting to shift the responsibility for the use by Germany of dum-dum bullets, particularly since the outbreak of the war.

German Crown Prince in Midst of Fighting

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the correspondent of the Times says that the German crown prince has been established in a fortified position to the westward of Verdun. Parts of the crown prince's army have attacked forts south of Verdun, which since yesterday have been bombarded by heavy artillery of the Germans.

Holland Resents Hold Up of Her Steamers

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The German ambassador's wireless dispatches from Berlin today contained this statement: "The action of the French and English in holding up neutral Holland steamers, taking off American and other neutral mail, is causing rising resentment in Holland."

KAISER'S ARMIES DRIVEN FROM VALLEY OF MARNE IN WORLD'S GREATEST BATTLE

By Associated Press. PARIS, via London, Sept. 11, 8:05 p. m.—It is officially announced that the German center as well as their right wing is retreating.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11, 3:25 p. m.—The official press bureau today gave out the following announcement: "The general retirement of the enemy continues. The British forces yesterday captured 1500 prisoners, including wounded, and several guns, including Maxims and large quantities of transports."

EASTERN RETREAT EXTENSIVE. By Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 11, 3:17 p. m.—News from the fighting line to the east of Paris is to the effect that at some points the Germans have retired at least 60 to 75 miles.

FIFTEEN DIE IN ACCIDENT. By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11, 4 a. m.—Late reports indicate that 15 persons lost their lives in the wreck of a troop train loaded with 600 soldiers on their way to Europe, which was derailed in Cape Colony.

CONFIRM MARNE SUCCESS. By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The French embassy today received from Bordeaux the following dispatches dated September 11th, but presumably written last night: "Today at eighteen o'clock (6 p. m.) from indications given by the War Department, marked advances against the German right wing have been gained by our troops. "To the north of La Ferte Sous Jouarre, the first German army was obliged to re-cross the Marne and yesterday night below a line formed by the river Ladhins and Mezy and Fere Enardens, the Marne valley, was free from German troops, according to reports by the British advance corps. Our troops at Champagne were forced by the third German army to retire to Gourgancourt and Salons, but part of what was lost was regained. The fifty German army before Vassincourt in the Argonne was attacked by our troops. We progressed slightly. "The Fort Goncourt in the Meuse was attacked by the Germans. "Slight progress was made on the road to Chateau Salins in Lorraine by the Sixth German army in the forest of Champeaux. Part of that advance was lost. "As for Maubeuge, we have no official confirmation of its having been taken. The garrison was not half what German agencies say."

RUSSIAN GUNS ON VISTULA SINK FOE'S SHIP. By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, via Paris, Sept. 11, 8:35 a. m.—An Austrian steamer has been sunk by a Russian battery located on the banks of the Vistula.

OFFICERS DESERT TROOPS. By Associated Press. ROME, Sept. 10, via London, Sept. 11, 4:50 a. m.—According to the Tribune, an Austrian torpedo boat has been blown up near Fasana, 52 miles south of Trieste, in Istria, after striking a mine. A number of wounded Austrians who arrived in Trieste state that during the battle of Lemberg all the Austrian officers of three battalions fled, leaving the battalions in the woods, where they were annihilated. Only 50 men escaped.

Hero Boy Scout Is Decorated by King. By Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 11, 11:12 a. m.—The hero of Belgium today is the Boy Scout Lysen, who has been decorated by King Albert for his valor and devotion to his country. This young man, born at Liege, is described by the Figaro as of almost uncanny sharpness, with senses and perceptions as keen as a savage. He was able to find his way through the woods and pass the sentinels of the enemy with unerring accuracy. Legend made his way through the German lines from Antwerp for the tenth time last Sunday, carrying dispatches to secret representatives of the Belgian government in Brussels. He has been decorated and denounced 11 German spies in Belgium and performed a variety of other services, and all without impairing his boyish simplicity.

Asks Minister to Convey Felicitations. By Associated Press. BORDEAUX, Sept. 11, 1:20 p. m.—President Poincare has written a letter to Minister of War Mureau asking him to convey the congratulations of the French government to General Joffre and the French army on the brilliant successes gained in co-operation with the English allies in repulsing the Germans to the east of Paris.

Four Days of Fighting Leave Battle in Doubt. By Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 11, 6:40 a. m.—The tone of comment in the morning papers on the result of the four-days' fighting in the great battle of Champagne is one of lively satisfaction. The successes, it is admitted, do not mean that the battle has been won, but the gain of 40 miles on the German left increases the jeopardy on their line of communications and must cause, it is understood, a demoralization of the enemy's tired forces. As yet there is no indication that the German army on the Lorraine frontier will be able to get through to help the main force, as last accounts reported that Maubeuge was still holding out, though several forts had been placed hors de combat. The fall of this place might have a great bearing on the result of the battle in opening a ready means of communication.

MAUBEUGE IMPORTANT. Some critics say that even if Maubeuge falls that route will not become available for at least two days and the battle may be decided before it can be of any practical use, except as a way out in case of disaster. The latter contingency is not counted on as much as it is hoped for by Paris, but the undoubted reversal of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1-2)

DEAD STREW INVADER'S PATH

German Influx From Belgium
Like Flood, Observer Reports

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11, 7 a. m.—A correspondent of the Associated Press who has been through Belgium sends a long message from Rotterdam, which was rather heavily censored throughout, but which appears to be an account of the invasion of Belgium by the Germans from the point of view. Something was deleted at the beginning. The story follows:
"From Brussels the German army poured over southern Belgium into France like a flood tide, spreading like a fan in the directions of Beaumont, Maubeuge, Mons and Lille, joining in the south of Belgium with other army corps proceeding from Gembloux, Dinant and Givet. They went over the French border without serious resistance, the French scattering before them in great disorder, leaving behind much war material, their retreat extending as far as the forest of Mormal, in northern France."

GERMAN LOSS 50,000.
"Several rearguard actions occurred, resulting in considerable losses to both sides and bringing up the losses of the Germans in Belgium to about 50,000."

"From the Binche, countryward in the direction of Maubeuge, innumerable skirmishes occurred from August 23 to August 26. At Eras, just west of Binche, the French and English were repulsed by the Germans."

"The French retreated to Bonne Esperance, where, after another skirmish, they fell back through Mages Saint Marie and Mages Le Chateau, 10,000 English retiring to Jeumont at the same time."

"Engagements in the vicinity of Buisserie and Thun constituted the most determined resistance offered by the allies."

DEVASTATING DUEL.
"After two days' continuous artillery duel, which swept the surrounding country and demolished almost every structure, the entire right wing of the allies withdrew far to the southward. The Germans had the opportunity to sweep through Beaumont and approach Maubeuge from the south."

"Meanwhile, the other corps had approached Maubeuge from the north, entirely investing the fortress. The English and French were, August 23, driven across the Sambre river, where on the south bank of the river on a thirty-mile front fighting continued three days."

"The correspondent first saw actual fighting in the direction of Maubeuge on August 26, when white puffs of the German shrapnel clouded the horizon, but the forward movement of the German columns was so fast that when the correspondent reached the scene of the retirement the firing line had advanced fully ten miles southward. An extensive trench system had been dug by the French infantry in the French retreat."

GILMAN WOUNDED AIDED.
"The German wounded, in all cases, were immediately cared for, the dead buried as fast as the army continued on the march, while the French dead were left unburied and the wounded, in many cases, remained on the battlefield for three days."

"Large numbers of the French wounded were brought into Solre Sur Sambres from the surrounding woods, whether many had dragged themselves to escape. Every conceivable kind of building, such as the chateau, a schoolhouse and inn, was used as a hospital, and here the French wounded were accorded the same care as the German wounded."

"A large proportion of the French wounded died from lack of prompt attention and long exposure in the open without food or drink. No cases were observed where French medical men were left behind to take care of their wounded."

"The German medical corps was fully occupied with the treatment of its own wounded and was hastened onward by the forced marches of extraordinary speed and duration made by the Germans."

"AIDED BY GRAPELING."
"The French dead, in all sorts of conveyances, were common sight, and squares and cemeteries, with unfinished graves, gave mute evidence of a hurried French retreat."

"Dove-shaped German aeroplanes whirled constantly over the country, and occasionally one saw French aviators far enough aloft to be out of range of the special German guns designed for the destruction of air craft."

"I saw a duel in the air between French and German machines. After a series of downward in gigantic circles, the two machines plunged to the earth almost side by side and were completely shattered and the aviators killed. While aloft, after a series of evolutions, kept up a lively exchange of revolver shots, which at first were ineffectual and then simultaneously, judging by the disturbed equilibrium of the machines, they reached their marks."

"After rain efforts by the aviators to regain control, both machines fell to the earth like meteors."

LOST REGIMENTS STILL IN FIGHT

German Patrol Taken in Ambush by Sixty Detached Englishmen.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Rouen has great hopes that many of the British numbered in General Sir John French's list of casualties will turn up again. He has every ground for expecting, he says, to see 4000 or more of these men soon back in the firing line.

"For the past two days," he says, "I have been informed, while on a journey toward Paris, that the Eleventh Hussars no longer exist, yet it is certain that half of their 700 will soon appear."

"At nightfall of September 2 the Eleventh Hussars, exhausted after four days' fighting, slackened rein near Compiègne. They had experienced ill luck early in the day when taking fifty Urban prisoners. Through this they had expected to get some remounts, but the Germans were worse off than they."

"The Eleventh were to have a night's rest, screened by 10,000 fresh troops, but at 3 o'clock in the morning, without warning, shells burst over them and their horses stampeded, but to assert that the regiment was annihilated is to stretch the imagination. The same applies to the Dorset regiment."

"Meanwhile, many hundreds of stragglers are giving good accounts of themselves. At Chantilly sixty of them, of all regiments, laid a quick-firing trap for the patrol of Germans. The enemy was allowed to pass one Maxim concealed in a hedge and to ride on to the muzzles of two others ahead. They were caught between two fires and the British mowed them down. The survivors were taken prisoners."

"The correspondent quotes other incidents to prove that stragglers are a force to be reckoned with."

SOUTH AFRICA SEES FIGHTING

British and Germans in Two Battles Near Kamerun.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—That there has been some fighting between the British and Germans in Africa is indicated by a list of casualties issued last night. In Cameroon (Kamerun), a German colony of Western Equatorial Africa, three officers were killed, four were wounded and four are missing.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—British troops have met and defeated a German force of 400 which entered Nyassaland, British Central Africa, according to an announcement made by the official Press Bureau, which says:
"The Germans lost seven officers killed and two wounded, two field and two machine guns. The loss among the rank and file has not been ascertained, but was heavy."

"On September 8 a British force advanced against the Germans, who, however, evaded them and attacked the British station at Keronga (on the north-west shore of Lake Nyasa) at that time the headquarters of the Stevenson road, which was defended by one officer, fifty African rifles, the police and eight civilians."

"After three hours' resistance a British column arrived and drove the enemy off. Later the main British force came up, and after a day's fighting, in which the Germans fought with great determination, the latter were dislodged by repeated bayonet charges and driven toward the Songde river."

"The British loss among the whites was four killed and several wounded. Loss among the rank and file not ascertained."

SKIPPER MAKES DARING RESCUE OF STEAMER OCEANIC'S CREW

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—Captain Armstrong of the Aberdeen trawler Oceanic, who told the following story of his rescue of the crew of the White Star liner Oceanic to the Aberdeen correspondent of the Central News:
"It was misty and very dark Tuesday morning off the north coast of Scotland when our attention was attracted, on our homeward way, by signals of distress in the direction of the coast."

"Finally after a long and hard tussle in a heavy sea we brought ourselves alongside. Ropes and ladders were lowered over the side of the liner, down which the crew scrambled and tumbled to the deck of our boat."

"In a short time practically every available inch of our space was occupied by men from the big boat. We got 400 of them and then steamed off, leaving them on a large steamer which was standing off in the distance, unable to get any nearer without herself running on the rocks of this dangerous coast."

"After transferring our human freight we returned quickly but cautiously and took off the remainder, who were similarly transferred to the boat in the offing."

"The rescue was attended with great risk, on account of the heavy sea and darkness, and the dangerous rocks all about."

"The captain of the Oceanic was the last to leave his ship."

TRAFFIC IS REOPENED BY GERMANS AT LIEGE

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent quotes the Nieuws Van Den Dag as saying that steamship traffic between Maestricht and Liege is now in operation, but that the tariff has been doubled. Several workshops have been reopened, among them the ammunition plant, which is under German control. Liege is garrisoned by Bavarian Landsturm and all approaches are fortified by barbed wire entanglements.

According to the newspaper all official publications and receipts must be written in German. Inhabitants of Liege must be indoors after 7 o'clock each evening. Many Germans, former inhabitants of Liege, are returning.

TEN FROM BEING SHOT

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—A Jesuit priest, who escaped from Louvain before the destruction of that city has written his father, Philip Coley, of this city as follows:
"All our people escaped except eleven schoolboys. One of these was shot at once as he had a diary of the war on his person. The others were taken to Brussels where they were to have been shot, but the American minister stepped in and stopped it. He told the Germans that his government would declare war if any of these persons were shot."

TELLS EXPERIENCE AS SPY SUSPECT

American Artist, in Party of Correspondents, Has Death Sentence Passed.

By Associated Press.
ROTTERDAM, via London, Sept. 11.—Further experiences are related by one of the American correspondents who have just arrived on Dutch soil after being held prisoners by the Germans in Belgium and France.

Lawrence Stein, an American artist, who was a fellow prisoner of the correspondents from Beaumont to Aix-La-Chapelle, underwent a frightful ordeal at the hands of a demented German lieutenant, who sentenced him to be shot as an English spy.

Stevens left Brussels on August 24 in an automobile with King Albert's photographer, Victor Hannebeard, and a Belgian correspondent, with the intention of making sketches on the battlefields. Unknown to Stevens, the Belgian correspondent carried a camera and the Red Cross insignia, in express violation of the rules of war. At Louvain, in the southeast of Charleroi, they met Belgian peasants feeling from the fighting at Liege.

German lieutenant and stripped of an American flag and all his possessions, save a fraternity pin. He was placed roughly in a baggage wagon between two German guards and taken to the gendarmerie on the outskirts of the town.

SIGNIFICANTLY TAPPED FOREHEAD
The lieutenant prodded him with a gun and at the same time informed him that if he stepped a foot in any direction he would be shot. The German soldiers significantly tapped their foreheads, indicating that the officer was not in his right mind.

At dusk the American artist was placed in a vile inner cell, where he was confined for an hour. He was then taken to an outer room, court martialed and sentenced to die at 8 o'clock the next morning. He was led into the courtyard, where he was shown eight soldiers who would carry out his execution.

When he expostulated he was struck by the lieutenant and shoved into the prison with his hands bound behind him and seated in a camp chair, with two guards. His eight prospective executioners slept between him and the door, and the other guard stretched himself in front of the doorway.

DETERMINES UPON ESCAPE.
Determining upon a plan of escape, Stevens wriggled his hands free from the rope which bound him and took off his shoes. He decided to overturn the lamp and in the excitement to run into the orchard behind the building. At this point a Prussian officer entered and sat down to read a paper under the dim lamp, his knees touching Stevens.

"Resigned to death, the American fell asleep, only to be awakened by the gleam of a searchlight. Fingers of light fell upon two soldiers with pick and shovel breaking ground in the courtyard for his grave."

At 5:55 o'clock in the morning the night guards in the room strapped on their cartridge belts and loaded their guns. Stevens was ordered to fall in.

PLANS SUDDENLY CHANGED.
Suddenly the plans were changed, as instead of going to his death, Stevens was taken before General von Arnim at the Chateau de Casteau. After being forced to march for two days with the Germans Stevens was found by the American correspondents at Beaumont, where for two nights he slept in a small cell packed with French prisoners.

Stevens saw the battlefield south of Liege six hours after the engagement when the French were driven out of the town up the slope into the wood. The ground was covered with French dead; the city was entirely destroyed; the fields were massed with dead horses and battlefield guns and musical instruments in indescribable confusion.

ROTHSCHILD'S REFUSE
MONEY FROM AUSTRIA

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—The Austrian government has offered to remit money for the payment of the coupons of the Hungarian loan of 1914, but as this would involve a transaction with an enemy government, the London firm of Rothschilds has declined to accept the offer.

PAPAL ENCYCLICAL CALLS FOR PEACE

Pontiff Admonishes Rulers of World: Cardinal Gibbons
His Spokesman.

By Associated Press.
ROME, Sept. 11.—The "Osservatore Romano," the official organ of the Vatican, last evening published a pastoral letter from Pope Benedict XV in the form of an encyclical to the episcopacy of the world. It contains the program for the pontificate of Pope Benedict which, summarized, called for renewed efforts to spread religion throughout the world and urged peace and brotherhood among people and nations in fear of God.

The encyclical, which is addressed to the "Universal Catholic World," deals chiefly with the European war. It said: "Looking out upon the flock entrusted to our care the immense spectacle of a general war has struck us with unutterable horror and sadness."

"When we see such a considerable portion of Europe devastated by fire and sword and drenched with the blood of Christians, it is incumbent upon us to embrace all without distinction, nations and peoples, in the arms of paternal charity."

"We exhort most earnestly those who govern the destiny of the nations that they should bring themselves to a frame of mind whereby they may put aside all dissensions contrary to the welfare of humanity."

Let them realize that there already is too much suffering and sorrow attached to this mortal life and that it should not be rendered more wretched or more sorrowful, let them realize how much ruin and death already has been wrought, and how much human blood already has been shed."

"Hasten, therefore, to enter into a council of peace. Grasp the right hand of friendship and receive a special reward from God for yourselves and your nations."

and earn the greatest praise from the brotherhood of man."

The encyclical ends by the Pope expressing the hope that the beginning of his pontificate will see the end of war.

The Naples newspaper Mattino published an interview with Cardinal Gibbons in which the cardinal said that Pope Benedict had given him no special mission to request that President Wilson endeavor to bring about peace in the European war, but had instructed him to do all possible to induce American public opinion to demand peace.

TURKISH DIPLOMAT EXPLAINS ACTION

Abrogation of Conventions Defined in Detail to Secretary Bryan.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The Turkish ambassador, A. Rustem Bey, explained in detail to Secretary Bryan the meaning of Turkey's abrogation of all conventions and treaties restricting the sovereignty of the Porte.

The ambassador made it clear that American missions and consuls would continue to be protected by Ottoman law. All foreign diplomats would lose their extrajudicial rights in civil and judicial cases. The capitulations, which had been abrogated, he said, would not affect the existence of the missions which had been established by treaty. The ambassador said he would issue a statement later interpreting Turkey's action.

As Turkey's notification was a general character without specific mention of treaties, officials had not been sure of the extent of the action.

The German embassy today received the following message from Berlin: "The three great powers, apprehending Turkey's intervention in favor of Germany and Austria, expressed to Turkey their readiness to consent to the abolition of capitulations in case of Turkey's neutrality during the present war."

Turkey replied that her neutrality was not to be harassed and drawing the consequences from the notification, ambassadors at once issued orders revoking the capitulations.

FAR-REACHING EFFECTS.
They were indeed, however, far-reaching, as they were in most all of her agreements, in effect would break up Turkey's relations with the entire world. That view was confirmed in Turkey's notification that the Ottoman government had adopted "as the basis of its relations with other powers the general principle of international law. Officials here believe that the effect of Turkey's action will be as follows:

Americans and other foreigners who have had the right of trial in civil and commercial cases by their own diplomatic and consular courts, now will be subjected entirely to Ottoman law.

Turkey will be able to increase or reduce her customs duties without the consent of the powers.

Americans and other foreigners, who hitherto have been exempt from the payment of professional taxes can be requested to pay the same.

The religious freedom of Christians will not be interfered with except that the laws which Moslems rule impose on all who are not of that faith, may now have to be paid by Christians, if the Turkish government so desires.

STATUS OF MISSIONS.
Although the status of American missions and consuls is not changed by Turkey's action, there was much discussion here as to the possible effect on the missionaries who had come to look on extra-territorial rights as their chief fortification against religious oppression.

While the right of the missions to exist is not threatened, officials would not say just how far their security might be jeopardized, especially in view of a possible outbreak of hostilities.

Many Americans, especially the Jews in Palestine, who have inherited rights of American citizenship by living in what is known as the extra-territorial communities of Turkey, will not be able to bestow the rights of American citizenship to their children born in those communities.

The action of Turkey will not affect Egypt according to officials, as international law has no effect on the subject of neutrality. Published reports that the recall of the ambassador was to be asked because of certain of his recent statements were denied at the White House and the State Department.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam quotes an Nieuws Van Den Dae as saying that it learns that the German general staff and Emperor Wilhelm are now at Luxembourg, where the Uhlans are camping in 700 tents. The general staff is quartered in the house of the German legation.

"During the night," the dispatch continues, "the legation is guarded by aeroplanes which pierce the air with searchlights in order to prevent hostile aeroplanes from approaching the town unobserved."

"A French or Belgian aeroplane succeeded in dropping four bombs without, however, doing any serious damage. The railway line at several places has been destroyed."

AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS TELL THRILLING EXPERIENCES

By Associated Press.

ROTTERDAM, Sept. 11, via London.—The party of American correspondents who accompanied the German army for nearly two weeks across Belgium and into France found themselves safe on Dutch soil the next day, after being held prisoners by the Germans for four days under unusual circumstances.

The Associated Press correspondent reached Rotterdam late last night. For the last week the party had been under surveillance at Aix La Chapelle, whether they had been brought on a train with prisoners from Beaumont, Belgium. The party included Roger Lewis, the Associated Press; Irving S. Cobb, the Saturday Evening Post and Philadelphia Public Ledger; James O'Donnell, Bennett and T. M. Marchant, the Chicago Tribune; and Harry Hansen, the Chicago Daily News.

With them on the trip to Aix La Chapelle were three other correspondents, Maurice Gerbault, a Belgian; a correspondent, Lawrence Stein, an American; and a Belgian, King Albert's special photographer.

The party of five Americans left Brussels on August 23 with special military passes and were the only correspondents who were successful in following the German army. The party succeeded in marching along with the army, some time in sight of fighting, until Beaumont was reached. Here the Germans had established temporary headquarters. At Beaumont the correspondents were held up by Commandant Mitendorf.

DISPLAYED RED CROSS.
The trio were taken to a Beaumont jail. The party included Gerbault, Stevens and Hennegard and the negro chauffeur. All were arrested for photographing and traveling in an automobile which unlawfully carried a Red Cross flag.

The American party was allowed to spend the night on the stone floor of a Belgian schoolhouse, which had been converted into barracks for the German troops. The correspondents were courteously treated by the soldiers, who, after the day's 30-mile march, spent the night otherwise entertained them royally until midnight. The next day the Americans were kept waiting in the public square in the center of a group which

COMMISSION HERE

Will Present Case to President Wilson; Also King's Autograph Letter.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The King of Belgium's commission to protest against German violation of Belgian neutrality and alleged German atrocities in Belgium, set foot on American soil today, en route for Washington, where they will outline their case to President Wilson.

Upon learning that President Wilson would leave Washington this afternoon for Cornish, N. H., and would not return till Tuesday morning, the commissioners decided to remain in this city till Monday afternoon.

Until President Wilson receives the protest, no part of the text will be made public, according to announcement made by the commissioners.

Their diplomatic character obliges them to remain in the city for reasons of high courtesy towards the government of the United States to observe this discretion.

"An autograph letter from King Albert of Belgium to President Wilson is in the custody of the commission, to be presented by them to the President."

EXPECT LONG WAR.
By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The Flushing boat train brought many Americans tonight from Austria, Hungary and Germany. Among the number was Dr. L. Loeb, a Washington, who left Vienna eight days ago on a special train for Berlin, which carried 300 Americans. He said the people of Vienna was taking a lighter view of the war than the people of Berlin, where he remained for five days.

The main streets of Berlin, said the physician, were crowded until midnight by people who were anxious to get war news. The Germans were confident of victory, but at the same time thought that the war would last until the winter.

GERMAN FLEET SINKS
RUSSIAN MERCHANTMAN

By Associated Press.
BEHLIN, via Copenhagen and London, Sept. 11.—The German fleet is active in the Baltic. It is reported to have invaded even the Gulf of Bothnia where it captured and sunk a Russian merchant steamer, the Clever, an English-built ship in Finnish waters; in other words, behind the barrier formed by the Aland islands, which had been considered impassable for the sea forces of Germany.

A German torpedo boat stopped the Clever, the crew and 51 passengers, including English, and then opened fire on the steamer, which sank in five minutes. The passengers and crew were brought to a German fort where citizens of hostile countries are being interned as prisoners of war.

BRITISH TROOPS
FALL INTO TRAP

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—The Rozen correspondent of the Daily Mail sends a picturesque story of a great cavalry charge at Thulin, a town in Belgium, near Charleroi, and the subsequent retreat to Compiègne. The story follows:

"On Monday morning, August 27, after clashing at the long delay, the Second British cavalry brigade fell loose at the enemy's guns. The Ninth Lancers went into action eluding and shouting like school boys."

For a time all seemed well, few casualties were reported, and the leaders had charged almost within reach of the enemy's guns when suddenly the Germans opened a murderous fire from at least twenty concealed machine guns at a range of 150 yards.

"The result was shattering, and the lancers caught the full force of the storm. The French cavalry, including the French officer who rode with the brigade as interpreter, was killed. Captain Letourneur, who was the French master of a school in Devon, was riding by the side of Vauvieux and had a narrow escape, as his horse was shot from under him. Other officers also fell."

FALL INTO TRAP.
"While the bulk of the brigade swerved to the right, the other half, led by Lord, fell into the trap. The British were in the grass thirty yards in front of the machine guns and were made prisoners. Three regiments of the best cavalry in the British army went into the charge and suffered severely. The Eighteenth Hussars and the Fortieth Dragoons also suffered, but not to the same extent as the others."

"A happy feature of the charge was the gallant conduct of Captain Granfell who, though twice wounded, called for volunteers and saved the guns. It is said that he has been recommended for the Victoria Cross."

"After this terrible ordeal the British brigade was harassed for fourteen days of retreat, the enemy giving them rest neither day nor night. At 2 o'clock each morning they were roused by artillery fire and every day they fought a retiring action pursued relentlessly by the guns."

WONDERFUL RETREAT.
"It was a wonderful retreat. Daily the cavalry begged to be allowed to go for the enemy in force to recover lost ground, but only once were they permitted to taste that joy at the village of Lassigny, which they passed and repassed three times."

"The German made repeated efforts which were always foiled to capture the retreating transports. It had, however, many narrow escapes. At one point it escaped by a furious gallop which enabled the wagons to cross a bridge less than an hour ahead of the enemy. The engineers had mined the bridge and were waiting to blow it up. They sent a hurry up call to the transport and the latter answered with disaster. The bridge was blown up just in time to separate the two forces."

"At Compiègne the brigade for the first time saw and welcomed their French brothers in arms."

A LION IN FINANCE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Eugene Hewlett and his wife, formerly east bay dancers.

Attorney J. Friedlander Bowle of this city, acting on behalf of Mrs. Simon Wenden, 1522 Pacific avenue, sued, as plaintiff, Mrs. V. O. Miller, as pursuing an investigation involving a million-dollar bond issue by the Wenden Estate Company through Hewlett in which he is accused of having failed to account for $500,000.

It was alleged that after Mrs. Wenden's death legal steps may be taken against Hewlett.

PREVIOUS DEALS.
These troubles follow closely on a suit brought against Hewlett two months ago, by Howard Huntington, son of Millionaire E. B. Huntington, for the recovery of $100,000 alleged to have been obtained fraudulently by Hewlett.

Among others with whom Hewlett had business deals is Walter Magee, the well known real estate man. According to reports of the Los Angeles detectives, Magee decided certain property to Hewlett in return for the payment of an annuity. Magee would not discuss the details in Hewlett's affairs, when seen last night.

"Hewlett is a mighty bright man," he said, "and there would be nothing in sending him to jail, even if it could be done. I would much rather see him pulled out and make good. There are a good many people whose financial interests would be better, if Hewlett gets through the mesh than if he is prosecuted. I'd rather not discuss my deal with him. I want to come out even."

SUCCESS OF GERMANS OFFICIALLY REPORTED

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The German embassy today received the following message from Berlin:

"Official headquarters reports that the German Crown Prince's army yesterday took fortifications southwest of Verdun. The German Paris army is attacking the fortress south of Verdun. The other forts and positions have been captured by heavy artillery."

"General Pinderburg, with the eastern army, outflanked and defeated the left wing of the Russian army still in Prussia. The Russians gave up fighting and are now retreating everywhere. The eastern army is pursuing the Russians in a southeasterly direction toward the river Niemen."

Newspapers report that the decoration of the Iron Cross has been awarded to a number of German officers, including the well-known civilian pilots, Hellmuth, Hirth and Ingold. Emperor William has bestowed the Order of the Iron Cross, first and second class, also on Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia, but it is not announced whether the recipient is the father or son of the same name. It probably is the son, in honor of his daring attack on a Belgian fortress.

Lieutenant Commander Walter R. Gherardi, the naval attaché to the American embassy, has returned to Berlin from a trip through Belgium. He went through Liege, Namur, Louvain and Brussels. He said he noticed Belgian flags everywhere in Brussels as well as in other fortified Belgian cities. The Belgian civil guards are everywhere acting as police.

"Where would appear to be no end to the Americans who still continue to leave Germany."

SPECIAL COLUMBUS DAY R. R. SERVICE

Civic Organizations Meet Tonight to Further Carnival Arrangements.

Special rates will be given on all railroads coming into Oakland during the Columbus Day celebration on Lake Merritt and at Lakeside park from October 12 to 14. Thousands of visitors are expected for the three-day program from all sections of the state and from Pacific coast cities. The railroads are being requested to issue special tickets advertising the holiday all over the State and personal invitations will be sent out by residents of the east bay cities to their friends and relatives in all parts of the west to be in Oakland on "home coming day," which will be observed on Saturday, October 10.

All civic organizations of the Pacific Coast cities will be invited and the Royal Oaks of the Oakland Commercial Club and similar organizations are to co-operate with the committees in making the festival a success. The parade will be one of the features, with floats entered by all the foreign colonies and Chinese, Japanese and Japanese girls will be in line. The pageants, under the direction of G. L. Hutchins, carnival expert, will be participated in by hundreds of men, women and children and the complete story of Columbus' great achievement, from his departure at Palos, Spain, his voyage of discovery and his triumphant entry into Barcelona and his reception by the king and queen of Spain will be depicted in the pageants.

A meeting will be held tonight of the executive committee, which is composed of the following: H. C. Capwell, Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, I. H. Clay, A. J. Denison, Wilbur Walker, Col. W. J. Barrett, Herman Bell, D. L. Aronson, Charles F. Heeseman, A. Jones, W. E. Gibson, F. L. Belgrade, Paul Steindorf, Arnold Calver, John W. Statton, F. A. Briggs, S. J. Donnan, E. E. Kayser, Alex. Pantagies, Robert Robertson and F. J. Walker.

JAPAN'S EXPOSITION EXHIBITS TO BE SHIPPED

TOKIO, Sept. 11.—The Department of Agriculture and Commerce has just completed the examination of the articles submitted by manufacturers and merchants for exhibition at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The shipping of these articles, some of which are very costly, will begin about the middle of November. The government is anxious that the route between Japan and San Francisco will be clear of German warships by the time the shipping of the exhibits begins.

SPIRITUALIST SESSION ADJOURNS IN FRESNO

ELMHURST, Sept. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. John Rist and other delegates from Fruitvale Spiritualist church are returning from the nineteenth annual convention of the California State Spiritualists' Association which has just drawn to a close at Fresno after a three days' session. Delegates were present from all over the state.

Macdonald; treasurer, Mrs. Amelia Moore; members of the board of directors are Mrs. Salome Cowell of Oakland, Mrs. Elizabeth Ward of San Francisco, J. M. Hall of Los Angeles, H. C. W. Johnson of Los Angeles, and J. Winchell of San Diego.

Delegates from Oakland were present: Mrs. Salome Cowell, F. K. Brown, Mrs. Jennie Whitmore, Mrs. Laura Wells, Mrs. Gertrude Vinter, Miss Victoria Sunberg, Mrs. Sarah Dungan, Mrs. Nanning, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rist of Fruitvale, who made the trip down and back in their touring car.

KEEPS FAIR SPACE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—In a telegram from Washington received yesterday by President Charles C. Moore of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition announcement was made that the American Ambassador in Madrid had cabled the Department of State advising it that the Spanish government was willing to accept the exhibition and that $100,000 would be appropriated for that purpose.

CENTER IN SESSION

HAYWARD, Sept. 11.—A business meeting of the Union Civic Center is being held in the Center building this afternoon. Nominations for officers are being made. The election will be held in October.

ERUPTIONS ON LITTLE GIRL'S HEAD

Scalp Dry Like Powder. Scaled Over. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. No Signs of Trouble Since.

Granite Falls, Wash.—"At the age of two years there came a scale on my little girl's head. Her scalp was very dry like powder which roughed in the hair and mixed with the scales. Eruptions would appear and at times they would itch. They would bleed when I combed her hair. It seemed to scale over from one comb to the next. "I commenced to treat her as soon as I saw the least sign of the eruption. I tried solution at first and after washed with — Soap but she got no relief. Then I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, lathering her head, then washing and applying the Cuticura Ointment every morning. In two weeks she was well and there have been no signs of the trouble since." (Signed) Mrs. C. F. Johnston, Aug. 14, 1914.

UNSIGHTLY PIMPLES ON FACE

E. F. D. No. 1, Box 110, Harvey, Ill.—"About two years ago pimples and blackheads broke out on my face. They were red and itched and burned terribly so that I sometimes would scratch them. They were very unsightly. I lost much sleep. I used two boxes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and the burning stopped. In two months I was well." (Signed) George Maddison, May 5, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

Although Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold throughout the world, a sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

FRUITVALE HAS U. C. EXTENSION

Residents From Club Will Arrange for Lectures on War.

FRUITVALE, Sept. 11.—A close study of the war situation in Europe will be made by residents of Fruitvale with the aid of lectures by University of California professors. It was decided at an enthusiastic meeting last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Crosby, at which a University Extension Club was formed.

Talks on the European question will be the first of a course of lectures by University Extension in Fruitvale. Professors Kroeber will be one of the first speakers. Only the preliminary arrangements for the work of the University extension center in this district were made last night.

The course of lectures will be mapped out and a headquarters for the center secured at the next meeting of the Extension Club.

Regular meetings of the Fruitvale Center will be held at first twice a month. Miss Grump, secretary of the University Extension Department, outlined the work of the department at the gathering.

The educational movement gives promise of becoming very popular with Fruitvale people, who will have an opportunity of studying social, political and other questions in the course of lectures.

EASTERN STAR MEMBERS ENTERTAIN GRAND MATRON

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 11.—Golden Wave Chapter No. 257, Order of the Eastern Star, assisted by Fruitvale Chapter, entertained the grand matron, Mrs. Minnie Hiner of Los Angeles in the Masonic temple recently.

Several candidates were initiated into the order and the opening and closing ceremonies were performed by Golden Wave Chapter. The initiatory work was done by Fruitvale chapter. The visiting matron spoke highly of the work and said that she had never, in all the lodges she had visited in this state, seen it done in a more businesslike manner. The expression of the good will of the lodge, Herbert L. Landis, presented to Mrs. Hiner a silver salad fork and J. B. Mills presented a clock to the worthy grand patron, Frederick Kincaid of Stockton.

SAN LEANDRO TEAM DEFEATS ELMHURST

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 11.—The grammar school baseball team continues to uphold the school's reputation in the field of sport. Several notable wins are registered by the team this season. They defeated Elmhurst grammar school club a short time ago by a score of 9 to 4, defeated a team from Broadmoor by a score of 13 to 4, though several Fremont high school pupils were in the Broadmoor nine and repeated the win by a score of 13 to 4. Last Friday the San Leandros won from a team of high school "hunks" by the decisive count of 5 to 2. This Friday the locals will play against the San Lorenzo school and on Wednesday will oppose the Elmhurst school at Elmhurst. When there is no game against outsiders two teams play against each other, one captained by Melvin Scott and the other by George West. The lineup of the regular school team is: Andy Varnas, catcher; Martin Lee, pitcher; George West, first base; Joe Silva, second base; Emil Cardozo, third base; Walter Christensen, shortstop; Alvin Marner, Clarence Rose and Ed Schis, outfielders. Martin Neu is manager of the team.

RELEASED FROM ASYLUM, FACES SECOND CHARGE

HAYWARD, Sept. 11.—William McConnell, who is alleged to have stolen two horses, the property of John Egan Garcia, a farmer, was examined before Judge Charles F. Jones this afternoon on a charge of grand larceny. E. E. Garcia and John E. Garcia were the witnesses who gave evidence.

When brought before the Superior Court several weeks ago to face the same charge, McConnell behaved so erratically that the court ordered him to be discharged from the asylum. He was discharged from there at once and was re-arrested on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Sheriff Joseph Soares. McConnell's arrest in the first instance was effected by Constable W. J. Kanaaga.

HAYWARD WILL WELCOME U. P. E. C.

Delegates to Gather in State Convention of the Order.

HAYWARD, Sept. 11.—This city will extend a royal welcome to the delegates to the U. P. E. C. Society state convention which meets here September 21 to 24. The streets will be specially illuminated at night and entertainments and receptions galore will be given by the Hayward Council of the order.

Financial delegates from all over California will attend the convention. The preparations for which have been made by the Hayward council. Parades, banquets, sightseeing, tours and entertainments are among the convention features. The business program will keep the delegates working at high pressure during the sessions. The visitors will arrive here Sunday, September 20, and will be met by the reception committee of the Hayward Council.

On the management committee are Mrs. Louisa Calderin, chairman; Mrs. Maria E. Medina, vice-chairman; Mrs. B. Macdonald, secretary; Mrs. Amelia Moore, treasurer; Mrs. Amelia S. Bettencourt, Mrs. Louise Amaral and Mrs. Maria C. Garcia.

The U. P. E. C. order is one of the strongest of the Portuguese women's organizations in California. It has a large and steadily growing membership. This city possesses one of the most active branches of the order and it was largely through their efforts that Hayward was chosen as the headquarters for the annual convocation of the supreme council.

PARENT-TEACHER CLUB HOLDS SOCIAL MEETING

MELROSE, Sept. 11.—The executive committee of the Parents' and Teachers' Club of the Melrose Heights School held a social and business meeting last night at the home of the president, Mrs. Phyllis Hains, 5122 Congress avenue. The welfare of the club was discussed and steps taken to increase the scope of its activities. Light refreshments were served following the business meeting.

On the executive committee are the following: Margaret Macdonald, woman of the month; Mrs. Phyllis Hains, president; Mrs. Luther Gordon, Mrs. George Clause, Mrs. Mabel Eggleston, Mrs. H. M. Smallwood, Mrs. E. Donnell and Mrs. F. Smith.

MANY TO ATTEND STATE FAIR AT SACRAMENTO

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 11.—Many people from this city are arranging to attend the California State Fair in Sacramento Saturday.

Several parties have been formed and it is expected that others will decide to go before the close of the week. Although sixty fairs have preceded it at Sacramento, there have never been so many entries in every department. The brass band this year is especially notable, being under the direction of a famous Russian conductor.

W. C. T. U. DELEGATION TO ATTEND SESSION

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 11.—The San Leandro branch of the W. C. T. U. County Women's Temperance Union will send a large delegation to the county convention which will be held September 17 and 18 at the home of the president, Mrs. Phyllis Hains, 5122 Congress avenue and East Fifteenth street. Well known temperance speakers will address the gathering and an interesting business and social program has been prepared for the sessions. The San Leandro contingent will be headed by Mrs. S. M. M. Woodman, president.

DANGEROUS GRASS FIRE

MELROSE, Sept. 11.—A grass fire which broke out in a field on Fifty-first avenue late yesterday afternoon threatened the buildings of the Cloverdale Dairy Company. It was kept up close to the wooden sheds in which the live stock is housed. The fire department was able to check the fire in time.

FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 11.—Examination of Joseph Gomez, on a charge of criminal assault will be held before Judge D. C. Tofemler, Tuesday afternoon, September 15. The charge against Gomez was brought by Mrs. N. Herrera of San Leandro.

'ANGELS,' SAY SOLDIERS NURSES HIGHLY PRAISED

RED CROSS NURSES WHO ARE AIDING THE FRENCH ARMY AND THE ALLIES IN THEIR BATTLES.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—"War is Heaven." That isn't what the famous American general said; in fact, it isn't what the soldiers say on the firing line with the allies, for they agree with Mr. Sherman—but in the hospital it's different, for the nurses, recruited from the ranks of the noble Frenchwomen who have given their services to their country, have greatly lightened one of the horrors of war. In fact, the soldiers say, they've made war Heaven, and they are the angels.

In the meantime the nurses are too busy to pose as seraphs—but they do maintain that they are good nurses. Society women, experienced nurses, and even schoolgirls have gone to the front and have formed one of the most efficient Red Cross organizations in the world.

WOMEN'S CLUBS AGAIN BRANCH INTO ACTIVITIES

Political Situations and Tragedy of War, Themes of the Hour

After the fallow months of the summer, the women's clubs are so electrically alive that only a strong physical could keep up with the spirit of the Oakland has none of those luxurious, quiet clubs where nothing ever happens, for every Oakland club is founded on a humanitarian purpose of obvious status. Members must argue or listen to some one else argue. Otherwise they must play cards, or the piano, or explore painfully the classic plays of France as written in English under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cora E. Jones. Many persons not members of the center attend, taking advantage of the general invitation extended to the public to hear several addresses of immediate vital interest.

An especially important open meeting, the first assembly of the Oakland Center of the California Civic League this season, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hotel Oakland under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cora E. Jones. Many persons not members of the center attended, taking advantage of the general invitation extended to the public to hear several addresses of immediate vital interest.

"Initiative Prohibition" from the differing viewpoints of Horatio F. Stoll, the secretary of the California Protective Association and of Miss Marie Brehm, delegate from the United States to the Congress of Alcoholism held last year in Milan, was discussed vigorously. "Travelers' Aid" was the subject of a talk by Orrin C. Baker, general secretary of the New York Travelers' Aid Society, and a strong advocate for moral protection, and Miss Elizabeth Shepley, delegate to the National Educational Association, both elucidated "What the Signs of Promise Are."

ARMY AND NAVY CLUB. The Women's Army and Navy Club, a Berkeley organization of last year's inception, held its annual meeting this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Polom Arnold on Derby street. Vacation reminiscences and war discussions were the themes of the day. Mrs. Marshall Miller, wife of the late Admiral Miller, is the president of the club, which meets once a month at the homes of some one of its officers.

Y. W. C. A. EDUCATIONAL RALLY. In preparation for the opening of classes next Monday, next Monday, and registration rally will be in progress this evening at the Young Women's Christian Association. Preceding the general gathering, the educational committee and teachers will meet at 7:30. The rally will be given an informal dinner.

BERKELEY CENTER. The crowd filling Unity Hall yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Berkeley Center of the California Civic League, demonstrated Berkeley's interest in the coming election. Bond issues and taxation formed the subjects under discussion.

Mayor Chas. D. Heywood and Professor Thos. H. Reed advocated the school, harbor and civic center bond issues, whereas Robert Bush denounced the bond issue as a device for raising money and expressed a preference for direct taxation. Prof. Carl E. Plehn, speaking on the amendments relating to taxation (excepting the amendment relating to home rule in taxation) did not advise the exemption of shipping from taxation, nor the repealing of the poll tax. It was his belief, he stated, that the shipping tax should be enforced, as at present many sea craft escaped taxation duty by leaving port opportunely (for them). Poll tax, Prof. Plehn considered an easy tax and one which forced the floating population to the school treasury. It was a question, he added, whether churches should be exempt.

Little business was transacted at the meeting. Mrs. Dane Coullage, who presided, strongly deplored indifference to matters of public interest and urged members of the center not only not to fail to vote at the bond election but to remind their neighbors to go to the polls also. The next meeting of the Berkeley Civic Center is scheduled for Thursday, September 24.

A speech on "The War and Its Effect on the Working Classes" by Professor Ira B. Cross of the Economic Department of the University of California will be an illuminating feature following the Home Club luncheon next Thursday, September 17. The exceptional interest of the program plus the fact that this will be the first luncheon held in the clubhouse on the Hill this season, ensures an enthusiastic attendance.

WOMAN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB. Matters not only of party but universal interest sent enthusiastic vibrations through the crowd packing the Blue Room

SCHOOLS ARE OPENED TO ADULTS

Board of Education Arranges Course of Lectures on Current Topics.

The schedule of lectures for the months of September and October, provided each season by the board of education of this city, has just been announced, the course of particular interest and instruction at this time. These lectures, which the board of education has inaugurated, have proven to be extremely popular, no less than 25,000 adults having attended the course last season. Stereoscopic views will accompany 25 of the lectures, the views having been selected by the several speakers with much care and study.

The dates, auditoriums, subjects and speakers for the series are as follows: Friday, September 11—Franklin school, Ninth and Campbell streets. "From Panama to Alaska," Dr. W. J. Byers (in Eskimo costume).

Friday, Sept. 15—Chabot Hall, Jefferson and Tenth streets. "Mexico, St. St. Senior," Rev. Alfred Kummer.

Tuesday, Sept. 22—Emerson school, Forty-ninth and Shafter, between Broadway and Telegraph. "Paris and Recent Scenes in the Present War," Robert J. Buchanan.

Friday, Sept. 25—Claremont school, College avenue and Birch Court. "Wonderful New Zealand," Mrs. Lella M. Biemfield of New Zealand (in Maori costume).

Tuesday, Sept. 29—Garfield school, corner Twenty-third avenue and East Sixteenth street. "Our Vanishing Wild Life," Dr. Walter P. Taylor, secretary California Associated Societies for Conservation of Wild Life.

Friday, Oct. 2—Jefferson school, Thirtieth avenue and Carrington street. "Home, the Eternal City," Ford E. Samuel of Alameda. This lecture was one of the most interesting of last season's course and is repeated by popular request. It is illustrated by over 150 slides.

Friday, Oct. 9—Franklin school, Ninth and East Sixteenth streets. "Uncle Sam in the Far East," Charles H. Cunningham of Berkeley, who was for three years in the service of the United States government in the Philippines.

Friday, Oct. 16—McChesney school, corner of Thirteenth avenue and East Thirtieth street. "Russia—A Traveler's Impressions," Miss Catherine Englehardt.

Friday, Oct. 23—Claremont school, College avenue and Birch Court. "Home Without Hands," Herbert L. Cogges. The aim of this lecture primarily is to enlist new interest in him, the slides made from photographs taken from life amid natural surroundings.

Friday, Oct. 30—Lakeview school, Grand avenue and Perry street. "The Political Situation in Europe," Dr. David P. Barrows of the University of California, who was for nine years director of public education in the Philippines.

The lectures are free, but children unaccompanied will not be admitted. P. S. Wheeler, principal of the Emerson school, is director of the lectures.

Loyalty to Panama Causes Divorce Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Because hubby insisted on displaying the flag of Panama and boasted citizenship of that country and would not allow her to drape the Stars and Stripes with it, Mrs. Helen De Ycaza accuses her husband, Jose De Ycaza, with cruelty, in a divorce action begun today. There were several other allegations and the wife wants a substantial share of hubby's salary as book-keeper in a local concern.

LEAGUE ARRANGES SOCIAL.

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—Final arrangements for the social which the Intermediate League will hold at the Wesley Methodist Church on Thursday, September 17, were made yesterday by Miss Stella Shoemaker, who is the social vice president.

Professor Thompson of Hayward has promised to deliver a lecture and give some stereoscopic pictures of the Yosemite Valley.

OH, THAT FIRST IMPRESSIONS

If She'd Only Known About Cherry's Credit System!

ALICE WOOD got over it for months. She'd been a little extravagant about her vacation this summer and thought she wouldn't mind wearing her old suit for a few months longer. In fact, she had no money—not enough, at least, to get anything new. It wasn't so bad for a few days, though it always hurts to see other girls in stunning new clothes when you know you look like a "trump." But yesterday's experience taught Alice a lesson that CREDIT IS A BLESSING, and she'd been cheating herself by not accepting it.

She met her opportunity, the big chance she'd dreamt of, and lost it again because her looks didn't do her justice. Yes, appearance is as important as that sometimes.

Up at CHERRY'S pretty store on Thirteenth street there are stunning suits in the newest styles, to suit every complexion, every taste and every purse. They're burlesque on INSTANT PAYMENTS every one of them. CHERRY'S new fall models are more original and beautiful than ever.

Credit applies to all the dresses and blouses and everything else in high-class attire for men and women that you'll see at Cherry's.

Here is the number of their store on Thirteenth street—515. The men's store is just across the street at 525. The San Francisco stores are at 1009 Market and 2400 Mission street.

WAR REVENUE TAX BILL INTRODUCED

Legislative Step Is Taken to Bring Into Nation's Treasury $107,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Introduction in the House today of the war revenue tax bill marks the completion of another legislative step looking to bringing into the nation's treasury $107,000,000 of revenue. Representative Underwood, as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, which framed the bill, had the measure ready for introduction when the House met. It was planned to refer the bill to the entire Ways and Means Committee on Monday and to call it up for debate early next week.

The bill goes before the House with the approval of President Wilson, his advisors and administration leaders in Congress. This, it is believed, assures its early passage, thus affording means for relieving the government financial stringency arising from the war in Europe.

Under the provisions of the bill an increase of from $1 to $1.50 a barrel would be levied on beer; wines would be taxed an additional 20 cents a gallon, and a 3 per cent tax on freight transportation bills including railroad, steamship and express freight would be made. Transportation companies would collect the tax for the government and receive as compensation 1 per cent of the amount of revenue collected from the tax.

Democratic leaders in the Senate contemplated their conference with Republican Senators with a view to cutting down the appropriations carried in the river and harbor bill from $5,000,000 to approximately $3,000,000. This step is being taken as a further means of affording relief for war conditions. Republican Senators have attacked some of the new projects in the bill as extravagant and efforts are being made to include in the cut these items. With that accomplished, the Republican filibuster against the measure, it is believed, would be ended.

Rev. Guy A. White's Offering Takes Second Prize at Show.

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—One man had nerve enough to tackle nine women on their home grounds, that of cooking, and he almost secured a victory. In fact, his fate hung in the balance for several minutes until the three judges, all women, decided that the time had come when the rights of women must be upheld and consequently voted accordingly.

The result was Rev. Guy A. White, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the hero of our story, got second prize. The prize was a cake, being offered for the leading house by Mrs. J. E. Smith.

The judges, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. A. G. Weeks and Mrs. J. A. Waldheimer, even went so far as to partake of a small slice of Rev. White's cake. They admitted it tasted good and one even turned to him and asked for the recipe. It all happened at the big cake show held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Societies of the Christian and Presbyterian churches in A. O. U. W. hall last night. The hall was packed and the interest was keen.

The judges went about their task unflinchingly and after numerous notes awarded the ten prizes in the following order:

Mrs. J. E. Smith, Rev. Guy A. White, Mrs. E. A. Marshall, Mrs. L. E. Snyder, Mrs. C. E. Surles, Mrs. H. J. Miller, Mrs. J. W. Garrison, Mrs. H. E. Mayfield, Mrs. J. B. Schrader and Mrs. C. M. McCullough.

At the conclusion of the contest J. A. Waldheimer, acting as auctioneer, called for bids for the cakes. Of course the bidding was keen when the cake of Rev. White was put on the block. Every woman wanted a sample of it.

It finally went to a woman, who refused to divulge her name. She was the most sought-for person in the hall—as long as the cake lasted.

HE RINGS DOORBELL, LOST SISTER APPEARS

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—Strange things happen every day, but the strangest occurrence in William Cox's life was that of yesterday when he went to deliver some groceries to the home of Wesley Barnes in San Pablo, and was greeted at the door by his sister, whom he hasn't seen for nearly fifteen years.

His sister married William Barnes, brother of Wesley. They did not correspond and Cox was unaware of her marriage. She has been living at Windling, Mendocino county, and brought her husband to the St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco.

William Barnes is a brakeman and was unloading logs when he fell between two of them. Heft was ordered to the hospital, and Mrs. Barnes came on to San Pablo to visit his brother-in-law.

'RURAL CHURCHES,' PASTOR'S SUBJECT

Rev. Warren H. Wilson to Lecture Before Oakland Audience.

Rev. Warren H. Wilson of New York city, head of the department of rural church life of the Presbyterian churches of the United States, will address the members of the First Congregational church of Oakland next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He is expected to arrive here tomorrow evening and will be the guest of Dr. Kotfeld of the University of California. Dr. Wilson will speak upon the subject, "The relation of the country church to the city church." He is now completing his report upon a survey of the San Joaquin valley with regard to its religious aspect.

For a number of years Dr. Wilson was pastor of one of the largest metropolitan churches in New York. He was a classmate of Rev. Thomas J. Van Horn, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city and Professor Kotfeld of the state university.

SERVICES HELD FOR VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—Services were held for John Batchelder Lindsey, whose death occurred Monday morning as the result of an automobile accident. They were conducted by the Elks' lodge. The pall bearers were selected from the employees of the Giant Powder Works of Elvert, at which plant Lindsey was foreman for more than twelve years. The funeral was arranged by E. B. Smallwood.

The Elks' quartet sang "We'll Meet You, but We'll Miss You."

Following the quartet, a eulogy by Rev. C. S. Lindsey, pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, was given. The speaker extolled highly the qualifications of Lindsey.

Lindsey died Monday morning at the Craven Hospital, of a broken neck, sustained when an automobile in which he was riding backed off a cliff near San Pablo.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS NAMED ON COMMITTEE

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—As the attitudes of the high school have increased to such an extent as to warrant the appointment of committees to handle the various branches, this action was taken yesterday. The committees chosen follow:

Football—Earl McCann, Walter Hoffman, Clarence Cain, Richard Maxwell. Girls' basketball—Vera Lautenschlager, Ruth Long and Hefflen Burton. Tennis—Holloway Jones, Arthur Noyes and Donald McGregor.

After the meeting Joseph Sharp and Clarence Brown were appointed a committee to get out the football team. The suits will be on hand by Friday, September 18.

USES BOAT HOOK IN ROBBING CIGAR STORE

A small boat hook on the end of a pole was used by an ingenious burglar in an attempt to spear cigars from the shop of J. Sullivan, 1011 Franklin street, last night. The pole was poked through the iron grating, and the burglar managed to jumble the stock in the shop, but obtained little of value.

R. J. Scott, 320 Thirty-fourth street, concealed the key to the front door of his home on the front porch. A burglar guessed where to find the key and entered the home. Jewelry of small value was stolen.

A burglar jimmied the rear window of the home of W. B. Kito, 425 Lee street. The burglary was reported by F. H. Allen, a neighbor. It is not known what was taken as the family is away.

G. C. Chamberlain, 2805 East Twelfth street, reported the theft of a tire from his automobile, valued at $31.

CATHOLIC WOMEN READY FOR BIG FAIR

RICHMOND, Sept. 11.—Assembly hall was filled by women of St. Mark's parish yesterday afternoon, when the meeting was called to order for the purpose of making arrangements for the big fair to be held next month, commencing on the 15th.

It was decided to hold the fair in the Pillow building at the corner of Seventh street and Macdonald avenue. The whole upper, or third story, will be used. The fair will continue a week at least.

A committee, consisting of Miss McGinnis, Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. J. E. Harvath, Mrs. Mary Mattern and Mrs. T. D. Johnston, was named to make arrangements. Miss Louise Kerr will be musical director. There will be five booths.

FORMER OFFICER MUST SERVE PRISON TERM

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Joseph H. Griffiths has lost his commission of Captain in the United States Army and will serve a sentence of three years in the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth for embezzling funds in Government funds while stationed at Seattle. Now in confinement at Alcatraz Island, Griffiths will be taken to Fort Leavenworth in a few days. The President yesterday approved the findings of the general court-martial that, at the bedside on June 17th found Griffiths guilty and sentenced him to dishonorable discharge from the service, and imprisonment.

Ever since the sentence was pronounced the President has been beset by prominent men to commute Griffiths' sentence to dishonorable discharge. Lieutenant Colonel L. E. Goodier, a son of Lieutenant Colonel L. E. Goodier, Judge advocate general, Western Department, who is on duty from Fort Leavenworth on leave of absence, will take Griffiths to the penitentiary.

Fredericks Will Answer Defi Made by Hiram

"Stand up, Mr. Fredericks, and tell us what law Progressivism has written into the statutes of this state will you repeal or will you abrogate?" arrogantly demanded Hiram Johnson in his "keynote" address in this city; that speech which he declared contained practically all of the argument of this campaign.

Rest assured, Mr. Johnson, that Captain Fredericks will stand up, and following the adoption of the Republican platform by the regularly constituted delegates to the state convention in Sacramento on Monday next when the battle will open, Captain Fredericks will be found replying to every challenge you have uttered. Every question the aggregation once calling itself Progressive, but which has now abandoned that position and through its first lieutenant declares "partisanship in California is dead" will be answered, perhaps not to your satisfaction, but to the satisfaction of the people of California.

John D. Fredericks will tell you he proposes to repeal those laws and measures through which the state treasury has been looted of millions. He will tell you that no longer will "private secretaries to the governor" draw thousands of dollars more yearly than under Republican rule for the purpose of doing politics through the state. He will tell you that no longer will the state pay thousands of dollars more yearly than under Republican rule for the support of the executive mansion and for the pay of pet politicians around the capitol. He will tell you that he proposes to repeal policies and plans through which the expenses of the harbor board of San Francisco increased seventy-four per cent from May 1911 to May 1913. He will tell you that he proposes to reduce the load carried by the taxpayers of California because of the wasteful extravagance of reform administrations by several millions a year and to bring the expenses of government down to a point of efficient and economical administration.

The figures are available, Mr. Johnson, and the record is against you. You are aware of that condition and seek to blind the eyes of the electorate to the real issues of the campaign; to hide behind Republican measures for which you claim credit, but the day of reckoning is near.

By your tone, your assertions, your innuendoes, Mr. Johnson, you seek to belittle Captain John D. Fredericks. But you are going to make a miserable failure of your attempt. The people of this state know John D. Fredericks as a man of ability, integrity and unswerving devotion to the interests of the people.

Stand up you, Hiram Johnson! For many years John D. Fredericks has been district attorney of Los Angeles County, engaged in punishing criminals and making of his district an abiding place for those who believe in living in peace and security, and not one act of his stands to his discredit. Where were you, Hiram Johnson, during the time this man was performing his duty to the public? Is it not a fact that you were defending J. Dalzell Brown, one of the greatest criminals this state has ever produced; a man who deliberately robbed widows and orphans and working girls, for whom you now profess such great solicitude? Was it not through your efforts, Hiram Johnson, that this scoundrel went unwhipped of justice and that he escaped having to refund a dollar of all the thousands and hundreds of thousands he took from the unprotected?

How much did you get for that work, Hiram Johnson, and who paid the bill?

Stand up again, Hiram Johnson! Where were you in 1898 when the war with Spain and in the Philippines broke out? Did you enlist and offer yourself as a defender of your country as did John D. Fredericks, who bade his wife and two children farewell and presented himself for the firing line in far away lands? No, you remained at home, making demagogic harangues; delighted in listening to the sound of your own voice as it emanated from your ample throat. Not for you the uniform and rifle; not for you the khaki and the sword; not for you the marching and fighting. While John D. Fredericks was winning the title he now wears, in the armies of his country, you, Hiram Johnson, a Don Quixote in tin armor, were charging an invisible enemy or striving to break a lance with a windmill. You no doubt thought you were doing your country and state the most distinguished service you could render, and on second thought no doubt you were, for such as you do not lead men in fighting for justice where danger ever hovers.

You are great on bluster, Hiram Johnson. Like your preceptor back east you make a great noise at times. You knew when you made your so-called keynote speech that Captain Fredericks had already stated that he did not propose to enter upon extended discussion of the issues until the Republican party had voiced its sentiments in a declaration of principles. You had read his public statement to that effect. But knowing this you raised your voice like the famous bulls of Bashan and called upon the Republican candidate to "stand up." What supreme nerve on your part, although it is admitted you need nerve to take the position you have taken and is further admitted that your supply appears adequate.

When the great Republican party of this state, which will elect John D. Fredericks by a majority of more than 150,000 over you next November, shall have formulated its platform, rest assured, Hiram Johnson, that John D. Fredericks will "stand up." He will stand up in all the courage and splendor of his honest, virile manhood. From every platform he will answer your defi and when the people of the state shall have heard his message the avalanche of votes that will bury you on November 3 will be so great in its immensity that even you will be unable to hear the sound of that voice, which, like an empty drum, is now disturbing the pleasant air of sunny California.

DIVERSION

GREAT TEMPLE BUILT BY JEWS OF OAKLAND.

Built on the style of old Assyria at a cost of $100,000, Temple Sinai, the new synagogue of the First Hebrew Congregation of Oakland will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at which seven rabbis of the bay cities and hundreds of members of their congregations will take part.

This magnificent house of worship is a credit to the city and a credit to the men and women who have contributed so generously toward building it. It will stand for centuries after the voices that will be uplifted in its opening have been silenced; for centuries after the loving hands that have wrought its beauties have vanished into dust, a monument to their devotion.

The religion of the Jew is the oldest in civilization. It has weathered the tempests of the ages. Kingdoms have risen and fallen, nations have perished and faded, creeds have been and are not; the men and women who were the chosen people of Jehovah have been scattered far and wide; have been persecuted, slain, subjected to indignities, oppressed by peoples in every land save our own, but through all the distress and the tears, through all the misery, all the woe, the creed of the great lawgiver, handed down by infinity himself, has been maintained and today has more followers than when David reigned in Jerusalem and when Solomon completed his great temple dedicated by the great song:

Lift up your heads, oh, ye gates,
Ye everlasting doors, be ye lifted up
That the King of Glory may enter in.
Who is this King of Glory?

The Lord of Hosts, he is the King of Glory.

There be those who think the Jew is nothing but a money maker; that because of his shrewdness and his ability as a trader he has continued as an entity. But not so. The Jew has kept his faith, has been true to his ideals, his religion, and while the persecutions of individuals and governments has in many cases prevented his owning land and becoming a tiller of the soil as were his fathers, thus forcing him to become a business man, as it were, it has been his allegiance to his creed that has kept his people a unit, no matter in what land or clime they may have been forced through circumstances.

THE TRIBUNE congratulates the First Congregation of its magnificent House of the Lord.

VOTERS OF BERKELEY, DO YOUR FULL DUTY!

Berkeley voters will be derelict in their duty to their city if tomorrow they fail to vote the bonds for the five new schools asked for, when the need for these buildings is so apparent. As THE TRIBUNE has remarked, there is no need for argument on behalf of the first proposition.

The civic center is as great a necessity for the thriving east bay city, the educational center of California, as are the schools, although it may be more difficult to convince the electorate of that fact. But a civic center is important to every large municipality. It is the outward expression of civic pride and shows the visitors from other places that the community is united on one point; that of municipal advancement. A civic center such as Berkeley's council has asked for would be the biggest kind of an advertisement for the town.

As to the harbor improvements there ought not be a dissenting vote. If Berkeley is to share in the great benefits from the Panama Canal, Berkeley must provide for wharves and docks and their attendant accessories. If Berkeley does not, then Richmond and Oakland will collect the revenues and Berkeley merchants will pay additional sums for drayage.

Do your full duty, Citizens of Berkeley, with the school buildings to which they are entitled, establish a great civic center and get in line for all that will follow the use of the greatest water highway in the world.

Considerable interest was manifested over the arrival at Monterey of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Sell and L. F. Prescott of Oakland. The party came on horseback, and all the baggage they brought with them was strapped to the backs of their saddles. They had ridden pretty thoroughly over the northern part of the State and had some interesting adventures to relate.

LAND BANK EXAMINERS FOR 1915

The Commercial Club Receives
Word of Big Convention for Oakland.

Another convention, and one of the most important in the United States, was announced for Oakland in 1915 today, when the Commercial Club received word that the National Association of Bank Examiners, composed of the bank examiners of all the states in the union, will hold their convention in this city. The convention, according to present plans, will be held here in May.

which is one of those for which the club has been negotiating for some time, was received in a letter from President Thomas J. Smith of Frankfort, Kentucky, who will preside at the session. The final action, concerning the choice of Oakland was taken by the executive committee of the association.

The convention will mean that the bank examiners of every state in the union, probably five hundred in all, will be here for a week, together with Canadian visitors and their families.

MRS. OLIVE HAGAN
HEARS TESTIMONY

Acting Captain Matheson on the Stand in Murder Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Mrs. Olive Hagan, who shot and killed Clayton Putnam, an employee of the Ford Motor Company, was held to answer to the Superior Court by Police Judge Sullivan today. The young woman bore up more bravely than at any other time since her arrest and listened calmly to the edict of the magistrate, which held her without bail, forcing her to remain for many more weary weeks in jail.

Acting Captain Matheson of the Bush-street station was the chief witness of the morning. He read from notes the details of a conversation he had with the defendant immediately after the killing. In the course of her statements, Mrs. Hagan had admitted coming from San Jose with a pistol, prepared for the worst.

"I intended to throw myself into the ocean," she told Matheson.

"Would you have killed Putnam first?" he asked her. "Not if he would have helped me," was her answer.

At the same time the girl had admitted to the official that she was in a delicate state of health and that she had been led to seek her lover because of his coldness toward her and his refusal to aid her in a financial way in her dire need.

While driving a heavily loaded hay wagon from his home, Manuel Bettencourt, a farmer, found that the brake was not working and that he was unable to bring the wagon to a halt by holding back the horses. Wagon and horses were precipitated over the bank and down a steep, rocky slope.

Bettencourt escaped injury by leaping to the ground but was severely bruised. The wagon was wrecked and one of the horses badly hurt.

According to Bettencourt the accident was due to the condition of the road and to the fact that there is no guard rails along this dangerous point. A complaint will be lodged with the street department concerning the accident, as it is declared that Bettencourt was on the bank at this point only a short time ago.

Finds Culprit Who Stole Her Jewelry

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—When Miss Marie Hater of the Carlyle Hotel, 417 Kearny street, discovered at midnight that she had been robbed of $310 worth of jewelry, she set out to find the culprit herself. Accompanied by Patrolman James Tracy she made a round of the neighborhood and pointed out William Reames, an engineer. When the latter was searched all of the valuables were found on his person and he was charged with grand larceny. Miss Hater explained that Reames had called upon her earlier in the evening and she had not discovered the theft until she looked in her jewel box prior to retiring.

'PROGRESS' IS SLOGAN OF COMMERCIAL CAMPAIGN

Oakland's Boosters Gather to Launch Great Expansion Project

The big expansion campaign of the Oakland Commercial Club, on which the officers of the organization have been working for the past few months, was formally launched today, when, at a luncheon tendered by President Harman Bell of the organization, the leading business men of Oakland gathered in the Blue Room of the Hotel Oakland to hear of the club's achievements and outline plans for the increasing of its scope and membership.

The big project, as outlined today at the luncheon, will place the Commercial Club among the greatest organizations of its kind in the country. Already possessed of the greatest membership of any similar club of its age in the United States, and with a large list of achievements to its credit, the club today announced a comprehensive program of expansion that will result in new departments and new activities.

President Bell acted as toastmaster of the affair today. Secretary Joseph E. Caine, speaking for his office, outlined in full the plan of extension and also the achievements of the club on which the extension work is to be based.

CLUB DUES REDUCED.
The most drastic change, under the new plan, is that which will bring hundreds of members into the organization. The dues of the club have been reduced to $25 per year, with no initiation fee. This membership includes all privileges.

Tomorrow will see a meeting of the general assembly of the membership campaign to be conducted under the new plan. The city is to be divided into districts, and committees, prominent business men will handle the entire campaign.

President Bell, after briefly outlining the plan of the organization, introduced Secretary Caine, who spoke on the actual achievements of the club and the need for more departments and new business.

CAINE TELLS ACHIEVEMENTS.
Caine spoke in part as follows:
"It seems hardly necessary to mention what an up-to-date commercial organization means to a town that wants to grow. All through the Middle West and in the Northwest towns are judged by the kind of civic organizations they maintain. And the reason for this lies in the fact that these organizations have been found to pay the largest dividends of any investment a community makes."

"Commercial clubs have been designated as the 'selling force' of a community and you all know that no business can succeed without an efficient selling force."

"In the year since the club began active operation it has placed itself upon a sound financial basis. It has received paid for over $3000 worth of furniture and has ample quick assets to pay all its obligations and leave a nice balance in the bank. During the year the club has made a net gain of 200 members, or more than 50 per cent after all the 'dead' ones and beginners have been taken out. It has a membership of 381. So we claim the largest and strongest club of its age in the United States."

"The Commercial Club brings its members together once a week to listen to the latest news and to discuss the latest issues and in this way is creating a civic consciousness which we call the Oakland Spirit."

"The Commercial Club inaugurated the city planning movement in Oakland, resulting in the most successful city planning exhibit outside the city of New York."

HARBOR RECORD.
"The club's harbor development committee accomplished actual results. The physical obstacles to the leasing of warehouse and factory sites were removed."

"The Rees plan was adopted, by all the early cities."

"A comprehensive plan for the development of the Key Route Basin was adopted by the city."

"A traffic manager was appointed to bring business to our municipal wharves and the ships are coming in."

"Through the efforts of the Commercial Club the Pacific Coast headquarters of the Lincoln Highway was removed from San Francisco to Oakland. The exposition grounds have been secured. A thousand five hundred automobiles will come to the coast in 1915 over the Lincoln Highway, and these people will spend $2,000,000 in California, so we intend to see that they spend half of their time and incidentally half of their money in Oakland."

"And, speaking of visitors, the direct result of the efforts of the club has been the completion of which this club can fairly boast. A committee of the club took the matter up with the Southern Pacific and were told that nothing could be done. They then took it up with the Key Route people and received a promise of favorable consideration, conditioned upon the club's efforts to handle the work. The head office at Detroit assured that these people will spend $2,000,000 in California, so we intend to see that they spend half of their time and incidentally half of their money in Oakland."

"We have been most active in the work of the Tourist Association of Central California, seeing in this organization an opportunity for combined effort that will result largely to the benefit of the east bay cities."

"Early last summer the Commercial Club began a campaign to secure conventions for Oakland during 1915. We had no special fund for this work, no special department to handle the work, but we took it up as a part of the everyday office work and under the circumstances we feel that we have achieved a great success."

CONVENTION WORK.
"When I tell you that thirty-six conventions have been secured for Oakland during 1915, through the efforts of the Oakland Commercial Club you will concede that we have done some work. Conventions do not come to a city of their own accord, or at the suggestion of a third party. They have to be invited and they have to be assured that the invitation is sincere and that they will be cordially treated by their prospective host. Only last week we lost a very important convention because we could find no local member of the organization to carry the invitation to the city. This was the National Association of Credit Men, who informed us that they never accepted an invitation to meet in a city that could not send at least one delegate to their convention."

"There are many other conventions still to be had provided we can equip ourselves to go after them in the proper way. Hence the necessity of a first-class convention bureau within the Commercial Club."

"Under the new plan, in which already many business houses have taken out membership for all their employees, effort will be made first to secure the membership and co-operation of all business men, most of whom are already members of the club, and secondly, to secure the memberships of the employees of these men. Department heads, clerks, and, in fact, all patriotic Oaklanders are to be asked to join the club. The clubrooms will become the headquarters of Oakland boosters, no matter what their worldly wealth, the reduction of the membership fees, placing membership within the reach of all. With this in view the big membership campaign will start tomorrow."

The club, under its extension plan, will be divided into three main divisions, under the board of directors, who will directly control the finance committee, house committee and ways and means committee, all working in harmony with the managing secretary. The three operative divisions will be the publicity and convention bureau, the civic bureau and the industrial bureau.

The publicity and convention bureau will handle convention, promotion and publicity matters. The industrial bureau will have charge of traffic, transportation, harbor development, commerce, manufactures, new industries and trade extension committees.

The civic bureau will watch over public entertainments, city interests generally, city planning, the Lincoln Highway work, good roads work, laws and regulations, sanitation, education and other matters connected with the public welfare.

Every possible branch of work that a civic organization can handle will thus come under the direction of the club as it plans to extend its work.

BELL OPENS DISCUSSION.
President Bell opened the discussion: "The Commercial Club," he said, "is a success because the press and the business men are behind it. It is because of this that we have asked you to consult with us today. While we all deplore the present European war we cannot blind our eyes to our chances of progress. It is time for the Commercial Club to go forward; and it has, since Mr. Caine has been with us. We need a larger membership. We had hoped to bring Oakland's commercial organizations together. This has not satisfactorily been accomplished, but now is the time for us to make our own opportunity."

"The war means that shipping will come to us; commerce will open its gates. We must perfect our club to further this. So Mr. Caine has drawn up this expansion plan. The board of officers has approved it. Now we ask you to do so."

President Bell called for the views of several prominent men of the gathering. All rose to voice their support of the big expansion plan.

BANKER SPEAKS.
W. W. Garthwaite, president of the Oakland Bank of Savings, said:
"The plan for expanding the membership and the work of the Commercial Club will have one advantage that will be of inestimable value to Oakland—it will allow every business man in the city, no matter how large or how small his business may be, to belong to the club, to take an active part in the city's commercial growth, and to know that that growth is in some measure due to his efforts."

"The work of the Commercial Club in the eighteen months of its existence has been of great benefit to Oakland, and under its new plan of work it bids fair to do a still greater good for the community. The expansion plan has my hearty approval."

Announcement was made that the captains or leaders of the big membership campaign will gather tomorrow night at a dinner at the Key Route Inn, where details of the work will be outlined. The district leaders will assign men to all wards and the general direction of the secretary's office. The full list of committees will be completed at this time. The office force has been working for months outlining the plan.

CHART IS SHOWN.
A chart illustrating graphically the organization plan by division was shown during the meeting as a means of explaining the plan of organization. This was explained by Secretary Caine and Dr. P. M. Wineman. The three divisions of activities and their sub-committees were diagrammed. Secretary Caine explained that all members will work on committees, an effort to be made to give each man his preference. Informal discussion followed.

NOT WEALTHY, FARNHAM REPLIES

Opposing Wife's Divorce Suit,
Manufacturer Tells How
Fortune Has Shrunk.

Denying the sensational allegations of his beautiful young wife, and begging that she be refused a decree of divorce, Sylvanus Farnham, president of the Oakland Box Company, this morning filed in San Francisco an answer to the complaint of Mrs. Evelyn Clifford Farnham, Oakland society favorite, and darling of Thes Danzants. Mrs. Farnham's suit for a legal separation and the custody of their son, Sylvanus Jr., was filed three weeks ago. Startling charges of dissipation were made against the husband and father and a long list of cruelties resulting therefrom was mentioned. Today Farnham repudiates the allegations, denying that he was continually in a state of intoxication. He quotes his wife as saying to him on one occasion:

"I would rather see you drinking a little and jolly instead of sober and grouchy."

He denies that he was in an intoxicated condition on the day his wife escorted a party of young girls on board the U. S. S. Maryland and that he made a scene and disgraced his better half before them.

ASKS NO DIVORCE.
In repudiating his wife's allegations Farnham is careful not to ask for a divorce on his own account. He requests that she be refused a decree and that he and not his wife be given custody of the boy.

Regarding the presence in the household of the mother, father and sister of Mrs. Farnham, the husband complains as follows:

"Defendant admits that during the year immediately preceding the commencement of this action he has frequently remained away from home until late and unusual hours of the night, but denies that he has done so without cause or reason, and in this regard alleges:

"That the entire family of plaintiff, consisting of her mother, adult sister and father, have, during the entire married life of plaintiff and defendant, made their home with plaintiff and defendant; that defendant has for a long time objected to said arrangement and desired plaintiff and her child to make their home with defendant elsewhere and separate from said mother, adult sister and father of plaintiff, but plaintiff has constantly refused and still refuses to do so, alleging that by reason of said disagreement and the presence of plaintiff's said relatives in the household the relations between plaintiff and defendant have become strained and defendant's home has not been congenial."

CHARGES OF EXTRAVAGANCE.
"During the past two years plaintiff's extravagance has compelled defendant to pay over $3800 for accumulated delinquent household and personal bills of plaintiff in excess of his monthly allowance given to plaintiff for that purpose. That defendant is informed and believes and alleges that many items purchased for said relatives of said plaintiff were included in the said bill he was so compelled to pay and, alleges that during said two years defendant has frequently remonstrated with plaintiff over her extravagance."

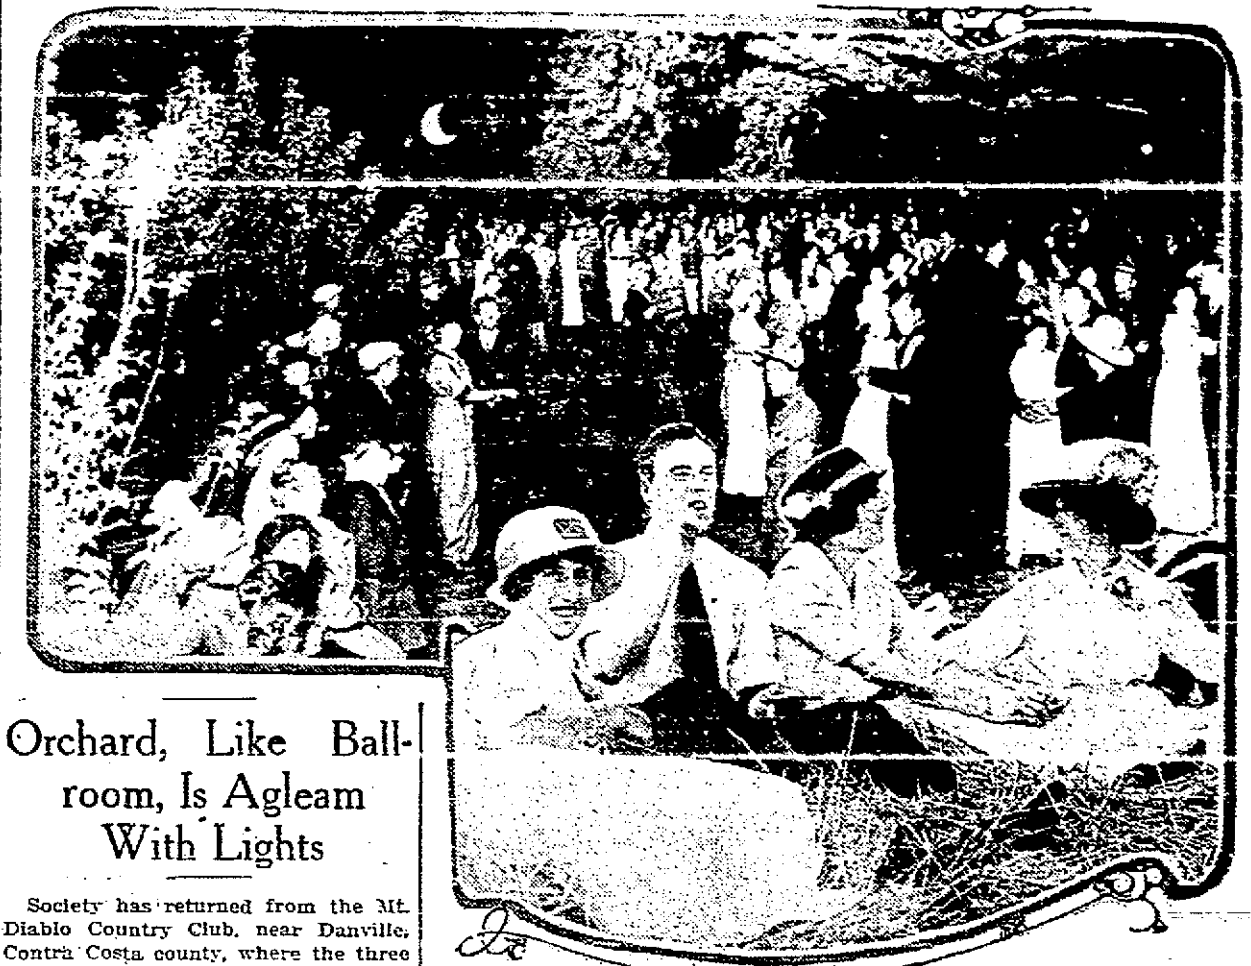

"Alleges that during their entire married life plaintiff has been anxious to maintain and endeavor to maintain a social position far beyond that which the defendant's income was able to support."

"That he has remonstrated with plaintiff for so doing, but alleges that he is justified in so doing."

Forty-two typewritten pages are given over by Farnham to a careful survey of his worldly wealth. He denies his ability to pay his wife the $400 a month alimony asked for by her and asserts that he is not at present worth $100,000, as is alleged. He admits, however, that were the markets in good condition, and his assets in such shape that he could realize the fullest possible price for them, he would clean up $100,000. As the situation is, he alleges, his fortune today cannot be rated higher than $35,000. He explains the disposition of the balance by calculating the present market conditions and his

East Bay Society at Harvest Fete Dance Under Autumn Moon at Diablo

Orchard, Like Ballroom, Is Agleam With Lights

Society has returned from the Mt. Diablo Country Club, near Danville, Contra Costa county, where the three days' harvest fete, was attended by many prominent residents of Oakland and other bay cities.

One of the delightful diversions of the festival was dancing by the light of the harvest moon in an orchard ballroom. An excellent floor has been laid beneath the fruit trees, which rose some distance apart and which, with the ripe fruit among the branches, hung with electric lights, made an attractive decoration.

The rodeo and sham battle were witnessed from points of vantage on haystacks. Among those who returned a few days ago from the week of festivities were Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Sara Rankin, Miss Marguerite Roberts and Miss Lottie McMahon, all of Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Breed, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McNear Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacey Erayton, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Coogan, the Misses Lilla Lovell, Phyllis Lovell, Frances Bradley, Marjorie Emmons, Albert Coogan, Gertrude Emmons, Frances Ramsay.

Police Patrol Auto Extinguishes Fire

The fire extinguisher apparatus with which the police runabout auto patrol service is equipped was used for the first time last night in extinguishing a fire on a Grand avenue street car. Patrolmen Chamberlain and Connolly hastened to the burning car and used the chemical extinguisher to put out the blaze. The fire had been caused by the fuse blowing out.

Atty-Genl. Gives First Instructions

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—The first instructions from T. W. Gregory, the new Attorney General, appointed by President Wilson, received this morning by United States Attorney John W. Preston, urged the vigorous prosecution of persons responsible for the unlawful raising of the prices of food products. The orders dealt also with the violations of the pure-food laws, and Preston was urged to work vigorously for conviction and to insist upon the maximum penalty of the law and jail sentences instead of fines in every instance.

SOCIETY WIFE.

He requests that the restraining order preventing him from disposing of his property be permanently dissolved and that he be allowed to come again into the full possession of his estate. Mrs. Farnham is considered one of the best dancers in local society. She has been one of the most sought after partners at Thes Danzants at the St. Francis and Palace Hotels in San Francisco and has long been one of the most popular matrons in the dancing society set. A talented musician and a woman of great beauty and charm, she married Farnham soon after her graduation from the Irving Institute, an exclusive girls' school. Since her wedding she has been the foremost in all of the important social events on both sides of the bay and has taken a great interest in charity balls and benefit theatricals.

CONBOY ENDS TERM IN PRISON

Aged Police Captain Serves Sentence in San Quentin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Captain Michael Joseph Conboy, slayer of Bernard Lagan, a young coal merchant of the Mission district, was released from San Quentin penitentiary this morning after serving a three-year term on a manslaughter charge. The aged officer was met at the gate of the prison by his daughter with an automobile at 5:30 o'clock, and a grand reunion was held later in the morning at the family home.

Conboy was sent to prison on May 11, 1912, after battling for his liberty in the superior courts for a long period. He was first given the job of waiter in the prison dining room, and was serving in that capacity at the break riot in 1912. He was injured by the rush of the convicts and the strenuous opposition to discipline, and for a while was in the prison hospital. Later he was placed with the yard gang and four months ago was made foreman thereof.

MEET BY RELATIVES.
This morning Edward Conboy, Edward Conboy's son-in-law, and Mrs. Conboy were waiting for him outside the penitentiary walls, and on arriving here were met at the ferry by Conboy's other daughter and grandchildren.

The murder of Lagan was one of the most heart-rending crimes. It occurred on the night of June 22, 1909. Conboy, who was captain of the harbor police district, and one of the best known officers on the Pacific Coast, had not tasted a drop of liquor for years, and had not drunk to excess since 1890. June 22, however, marked the birth of his first grandchild. Conboy was a widower, but was engaged to be married. Celebrating the addition to the family, he met his fiancée in a downtown cafe, and for the first time in years was tempted to look upon the wine when it was red. After seeing his bride-to-be home, he treated himself to further refreshments and was staggering at Ellis and Fillmore streets when a friendly lamp-post caught his eye. He embraced it, and was in this position when Lagan, returning from a party with E. Greenwood, his chauffeur, espied him.

"Let's help the old man," said Greenwood, and as Lagan went forward Conboy rolled down and fell in the gutter. His police instinct was still alive, however, and he believed that Lagan was attempting to rob him. Drawing his revolver he fired at the wound-be Samaritan. Lagan lingered between life and death for weeks and finally succumbed. Conboy was tried three times. On the second occasion he was convicted and sentenced to seven years for murder in the second degree. The case was reversed and later Conboy was convicted of manslaughter and escaped with a three-year term.

FOUND DEAD BY BROTHER.

Railroads to Have Exhibit Manufacturers Plan Fete

MISS FLORENCE GUSTAV AND MISS DOROTHY GRAY, WHO WILL BE COSTUME DRESSERS TO REPRESENT COMMERCIAL BODIES AND WILL DISTRIBUTE LITERATURE AT CARNIVAL.

Two sections at the Alameda County Exhibition and Carnival, which will be held under the combined auspices of the city and commercial organizations of Alameda county at Idora Park from October 3 to 8, inclusive, will be devoted to the railroad and shipping industries of the county. The San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company have already reserved space in the railroad division, the former arranging for an exhibit to exploit the trolley trips over its lines with the direct ferry service to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition grounds, and the latter not yet having decided the nature of its exhibit. The Santa Fe, Western Pacific, and the Oakland-Antioch and Eastern Railways have not yet definitely decided as to whether they will exhibit.

In the railroad division will also be exhibits of car and railroad equipment manufactured in the county. In the shipping section will be the exhibits of shipyards and ship-outfitting concerns of Alameda county and two sections will be joined with a big electric sign with the slogan of "Where Ship and Rail Meet."

A concession of the "Gladway" of the carnival to be conducted in conjunction with the industrial exhibit has been taken by the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. A special committee, of which Lee Bertillon is chairman, has been appointed to take charge of the concession and at the next meeting of the committee the nature of the concession will be determined.

President Approves of Soldier's Sentence

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—President Wilson has approved the sentence of dismissal from the army and three years imprisonment in the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., imposed by a general court-martial at San Francisco upon Captain Joseph H. Griffiths of the Quartermasters' Department. Captain Griffiths was charged with embezzling about $8000 in government funds at Seattle, Wash.

WIVES COMPELLED TO GO TO WORK
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—Because many Los Angeles workmen earn small wages their wives work in stores and their children roam the streets. Mrs. Katherine P. Edson, a member of the State Industrial Welfare Commission testified today before the Federal Industrial Relations Commission. This assertion came in response to an inquiry as to what effect the unorganized condition of labor here had on wages. "My opinion," she said, "is that there are more women working outside their homes here than there should be. All unmarried women workers are complaining about the vast number of married women employed. Workers from outside cities have told me that the percentage of women workers in this field are much larger than in other places. Some large dry goods stores, I understand are employing women to employ married women because of the numerous complaints among unmarried women workers."

GERMANS IN BETWEEN
"The Ourcq formed the upper blade of a pair of shears, of which, as they were gradually closed, the Grande Morin, the Petit Morin and the river Marne formed the lower blade. Immediately the German staff realized this situation it endeavored to extricate itself from between the blades by a rapid retreat and by a series of furious but fruitless onslaughts on the French holding the right bank of the Ourcq. "The French, however, stand firm along the Ourcq, while the British have crossed the Marne and driven the enemy a distance of twenty-five miles. "From the center news is meager, but the French are understood to be progressing. "The Germans apparently are suffering from lack of ammunition, and it would seem that their difficulties in obtaining supplies from their base have only begun. "If all their plans succeed as they have done during the last few days, the allies will be well on their way to victory."

PLAN TO PAY OFF BIG FOREIGN LOAN

New York Bankers' Syndicate to Underwrite $100,000,000 Issue.
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—New York bankers plan for a hundred million dollar loan to pay off immediately and in gold its approximately $30,000,000 foreign indebtedness, was adopted by the board of estimate and apportionment. The loan will be underwritten by a syndicate of New York bankers at 6 per cent interest. The foreign obligation is a part of a $100,000,000 corporate stock loan due before January 1 next, of which $55,550,000 is held in England and $12,300,000 in France. Bankers could have contributed more directly toward producing a nation wide panic," said Mayor Mitchell, "than the failure of New York City to meet its obligations. Had the city defaulted it would have ruined its foreign credit forever."

BALKAN STATES SIGN ALLIANCE

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 11.—Telegraphing from Rome, a correspondent of the Daily Telegraph declares he has learned from diplomatic sources that Rumania, Greece and Bulgaria have signed an agreement which may be regarded as a real alliance, under the terms of which these three nations engage to interfere whenever necessary in order to prevent Turkey's aiding Germany and Austria in the present war. If Turkey remains neutral, however, these states will do the same. It is reported in Rome, the correspondent continues, that Berlin has become resigned to the idea of Italian neutrality, but she is determined that Italy shall at least remain neutral until the end.

MRS. HILLIARD ESTES (ELSIE SCHACK), A BRIDE OF LAST WEEK.—Scharr photo.

THE midsummer weather yesterday made millinery and gowns bloom like flowers. Light lingerie things and gay silk sweaters of the color of hollyhocks and dahlias were everywhere.

At the Hotel Oakland afternoon tea was held. Tables in the lounge were cool and inviting and everyone drank from long clinking glasses and said it was like a day in Santa Barbara or at Tahoe.

There is always a grateful informality in warm weather. No one has the spirit to be formal. No one tries to be. The most rigidly conventional persons relax. It becomes physically impossible to remain rigid. Gloves are forgotten and Panama hats take the place of Louise models.

One of the attractive figures of the summer scene was young Mrs. Plummer, here on her honeymoon. She was all in white, pique-skirt with a thin blouse, and white silk sweater. White pumps and a piquant white Panama with a flash of color in the ribbon band.

There was another graceful girl in pale blue with a broad white hat that had a band embroidered in pastel colors. And Mrs. Bud Havens was a picture in white with a soft burnt yellow sweater and blue in the band of her Panama.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst dined at the Oakland with friends. She wore her favorite lavender, a suit of pastel shaded silk with a chiffon blouse. In the evening there were long white capes for motoring, and no one bothered with hats driving about Piedmont, or even through the downtown streets. It was a refreshing departure from convention.

It will take place at the Wilson residence in Walsworth avenue and the guests will be of the younger set. Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. Maurice Sullivan (Gladys Wilson) will assist in receiving.

HENSHAW'S RETURN.
Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw have returned from a visit to Santa Barbara and Redwood, having spent the holidays in the latter place as the guests of Judge and Mrs. Frederick Henshaw. They are planning to leave soon on their delayed trip to Portland and Seattle.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
At a reception given by Mrs. W. G. Palminteri yesterday, the engagement of Miss Ethel Palminteri to Arthur C. Gibson of Boston was announced. The wedding will take place in the spring.

LUNCHEON FOR MISS EMMONS.
Mrs. Joseph Cowling gave a luncheon this afternoon at her home in Telegraph avenue, in honor of Miss Marjorie Emmons, the daughter of Albert Coogan. It was an unusually pretty affair for twenty guests, most of them intimate friends of the guest of honor. Conversation was held at one large table decorated with a profusion of pink roses and maidenhair ferns. After luncheon, bridge was the diversion of the afternoon.

MISS POND ENGAGED.
Dr. and Mrs. James H. Pond have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Pond, and Rae B. Wilson of Oakland. The wedding will take place in October at the Pond residence in Bella Vista avenue, and will be a quiet affair for relatives and a few intimate friends. Miss Pond is a charming girl who has been a favorite in the young set with which her fiancé is also identified. A number of informal entertainments will be given for the bride-elect in the next few weeks. The announcement was made through the medium of betrothal cards sent yesterday to friends of the young couple.

AT YERBA BUENA.
Paymaster and Mrs. Eugene Hale Douglas (Gertrude Russell) gave a large luncheon at their home at Yerba Buena Navy Station on Wednesday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carver, who recently arrived from Paris and are their guests. Mrs. Carver is the sister of Mrs. Douglas, and a former Oakland girl who has lived in Paris since her marriage. Recently they gave up their home in the French capital and sailed on a cotton boat.

LAUGHING, she said: "That's easy; I remove it! But listen, instead of cosmetics I use only pure mercuric iodine, which tones the skin wonderfully. Very simple, isn't it? I thought so. I'm now striking her plan and like it immensely."—Mildred Brown in The Story Teller.

How She Acquired "Feminine Charm"

A nicely-dressed woman sat beside me in the train. Everyone stared at her. It was not her beauty of feature that held our eyes, nor her costume. But there was something about her face and expression—I risked it and asked: "Would you mind telling me how you keep your complexion so dazzlingly pure? Don't think me impudent, but your skin over there, just haven't a line in your face, and your cheeks are quite peach-like. How do you do it?"

Society

Women are advised to buy Gloves now while stocks are ample. There will be no further importations from Europe for many months to come. Importers' stocks are now depleted and after the present stocks of retailers have diminished there must come an advance in prices.

Buy Gloves Now

The Moss Glove House Will Continue to Sell Gloves at the Prevailing Prices as long as our present stocks shall last.

These stocks are more than complete in every grade and kind of gloves. No house on the Pacific Coast is so well prepared to withstand the coming gloom caused by the cessation of imports than we are—but the woman who takes time by the forelock and lays in her glove supply now, not only for present, but future needs, will be effecting a great saving.

Our Policy

of fair dealing, good service and lowest prices will never be in greater evidence than in the months to come when our supreme wisdom and ability to meet unusual conditions must become apparent to all.

WHEELER-WALTON WEDDING.
The wedding of Miss Lillian Wheeler and Marc Savage Walton of Kentucky will take place next Wednesday evening, the 16th, at the Charles Stetson Wheeler home in San Francisco. In spite of the fact that it is to be a home wedding, it will be a very large affair for which several hundred invitations have been sent out. Mrs. Charles Stetson Wheeler Jr., bride of the summer, and a former classmate of Miss Wheeler at Vassar, will be a matron of honor, and Miss Frances Jewell of Lexington, Ky., who has been visiting the Wheelers for several months, will be bridesmaid. Samuel Walton, brother of the groom, will be best man.

ILL IN NEW YORK.
Miss Margaret Hind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hind of Claremont, who arrived in New York from Europe last Saturday, was operated on the same day for appendicitis in one of the New York hospitals. Her family is anxiously awaiting news of her recovery. Miss Hind, who was a student at Dana Hall in Boston, was spending her vacation abroad with a party of Wellesley girls and a chaperon, when war was declared. They were in Rome, and Miss Hind was struck with appendicitis, and she was taken from the quarantine station on a tug, to the hospital.

The Foundation for Good Dentition Is Started Before Birth Explains

THE TEETH—Part II.
The teeth are formed in the embryonic condition, the cell structure of both the first and the permanent teeth existing before birth. In this stage the tooth is only a mass of soft pulp which later by the deposit of blue salts becomes the hardest part of the body. As hard as a tooth is, if it were treated to a strong acid, the enamel would disappear leaving behind it the shape of a tooth but so soft that it could be cut with a knife. The tooth when grown consists of the enamel, or hard outer covering, and the dentine, or softer, inside matter, enclosing in the center a root which is held in the jaw by the nerves, connecting with larger nerves and blood vessels by means of the channel in the tooth root.

Beginning Before Birth.
The foundation for a good set of teeth is undoubtedly started in the embryonic state. Concealed in each infant's jaw at birth are the ten temporary teeth, the crowns of which are already formed. In the process of formation are the permanent teeth which in the course of seven years are to replace the milk teeth, and in addition on the back of the jaw are the beginnings of the adult permanent molars. Thus in various stages of development the jaws of the new born child contain fifty-two teeth, twenty-six in each jaw.

First Teeth Should Be Guarded.
It is a mistake to assume that the first teeth are not important and to neglect them. If not properly brushed and cleaned, decay will set up, early, the enamel will be pierced and an aching tooth will be the result. These teeth fall away naturally at the beginning of the second year. The roots become absorbed gradually, the crown of the tooth becomes loosened and only a slight force is necessary to knock the tooth out. When the tooth becomes loosened naturally, it is a sign that the permanent tooth is ready to take its place in the jaw.

WAR MAKES KID GLOVES SCARCE

W. H. Renwick of the Moss
Glove House Tells of His Trip to New York.

W. H. Renwick of the Moss Glove House, has just returned from New York, from an extended purchasing trip. "I started for the markets immediately after the war was an assured fact, for I knew the first goods to be affected would be kid gloves. By the time I arrived in New York glove making was at a standstill all over the world. Abroad the heads of the big glove manufacturers, the dressers, dyers and cutters, had been called to the front, and at home working conditions were unadjusted.

"I got busy right away and bought everything possible and with the favor of friendly wholesalers with whom we have dealt for years, and being among the first on the ground, I secured for the Moss Glove House the largest stock of gloves on the Pacific coast.

"I am particularly gratified over the results of my trip as it enables the firm to assure our customers that there will be no raise in prices with us until our present stocks are exhausted, and we have a bountiful supply. I was obliged to pay higher prices in some instances, but our selling prices remain the same as they always have been.

"It is an assured fact that there will be no imported gloves for at least two years, as the lambs and rather animals whose skins are used in the manufacture of gloves will have to be used for food purposes. When the present supply of kid gloves is exhausted we will have to depend on the silk, cape and mocha gloves made in this country until Europe itself again.

"While our supply is now ample, later there is bound to be a greater scarcity and imported gloves are to be had at all prices must be higher.

NAVAL OFFICER SOUNDS WARNING

Wireless Message From Standard Oil Steamer Is Intercepted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Rear Admiral Charles F. Pond, commandant of the Twelfth United States Naval District, in making public the contents of a telegram from Acting Secretary of the Navy Franklin Roosevelt, explaining the neutral use of radio apparatus by merchant vessels, yesterday made public what he described as "a flagrant case of the violation of the laws of neutrality" by one of the Standard Oil Company's American registered steamships, the Richmond, whose skipper is Captain E. Bridge.

"On August 24," said Admiral Pond, "the United States radio station at Cape Blanco picked up the following message sent by Captain Bridge to the Richmond to Captain Hayward of the Kennebec, another Standard Oil steamer, but flying the British flag, and hence subject to capture at sea by any German or Austrian vessel:

"How far from Columbia river are you? Have you had any news? Can I do anything for you? War between Germany, England, France and Russia. Think Japan declared war on Germany yesterday. Two German cruisers off San Francisco."

"The answer sent by Captain Hayward 27 minutes after receipt of this warning was also picked up by the Cape Blanco station. It was as follows:

"Thanks for message. Just now off river (Columbia)."

"Captain Bridge," continued Admiral Pond in discussing the case, "on arrival in San Francisco and learning that his message had been intercepted, immediately called on the superior of the Twelfth Naval District and tried to explain his conduct, which he acknowledged was wrong. He stated that he was trying to look out for the interests of his company.

"He was cautioned not to violate American neutrality in any such way hereafter.

VALLEJO AND MARE ISLAND

NEAR DEATH IN GAS EXPLOSION

Naval Officer and Wife Badly Burned; Child Is Saved.

VALLEJO, Sept. 11.—Lieutenant Charles L. Best, U. S. N., commanding the destroyer Stewart of the Pacific torpedo boat destroyer flotilla, had a narrow escape from being killed as a result of an explosion in Sacramento street late Wednesday afternoon when he attempted to light the gas jet of a gas range in his apartment. Mrs. Best and their three-month-old child were in the room at the time and when the gas ignited all three were thrown to the floor by the force of the explosion. Lieutenant Best fell on top of the baby and outside of a minor burn on the body, the child escaped unhurt. Lieutenant Best and his wife were badly burned about the face and head and were hurried to the Vallejo General Hospital by people who were close by when the explosion occurred. Dr. A. V. Doran is in attendance and states that both his patients will not suffer any ill effects. It is believed that the child turned on the gas in the range.

TELLS OF VICTORY.
VALLEJO, Sept. 11.—The news of Granda's great victory over Tom Mabon went to the cruiser, Mare Island and other vessels of the Pacific fleet by the Mare Island radio plant early Wednesday morning.

PRESENTED RELIC.
VALLEJO, Sept. 11.—President Finn and Mrs. Fisher of the Exempt Fireman's association of San Francisco have presented the Exempt Firemen of Vallejo with a valued relic of early California days in the shape of a silver mounted fox tail. This was carried on the Exempt's old engine in San Francisco in May, 1852, as a trophy for being the first to reach.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, Sept. 11.—The cruiser New Orleans is due to arrive at San Francisco today from Mexican waters. The man-of-war will come to Mare Island to be docked and repaired next week.

Mare Island officers were greatly pleased yesterday when they learned that Secretary of the Navy Daniels had requested them to submit bids for the construction of one or more of the new torpedo boat destroyers which were recently authorized. Contrary to the state that Mare Island is well equipped to handle destroyer work and that the private shipbuilders will have to make a big reduction in their estimates.

From now and until after the general election the Mare Island navy yard force cannot be increased unless by an order of the secretary of the navy. This is an order that has been in effect since 1876 and reads that "the force on a naval station cannot be increased sixty days before a general election."

Paymaster R. B. Westlake, U. S. N., has been detached from the ship Intrepid and will leave San Francisco on the 25th inst. for the Asiatic station where he will be assigned to duty. Paymaster Westlake will be relieved by Paymaster Wiltedink, U. S. N., who was recently assigned to duty at the yard storehouse.

Captain M. C. Cross, U. S. N., captain of the Mare Island Navy Yard, and Commander F. D. Karns, U. S. N., Machinery Department official, received their commissions yesterday. The two officials took the required examination for promotion last month.

The destroyers Lawrence and Hopkins in command of Lieutenant John Pond, U. S. N., arrived at the local naval station. The destroyers will probably arrive Saturday. The navy cutter Saturn loaded on ammunition Thursday for the vessels of the Pacific cruiser squadron which is soon to have target practice near San Diego.

MUSIC CONSPIRES WITH CUPID; PAIR TO WED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Manrice V. Samuels, son of D. Samuels, a well-known San Francisco merchant, and Mrs. Kathryn de Montford, daughter of the late Judge Howard Benedict Wood of Nashville, Tenn., obtained a marriage license in this city yesterday for their wedding, which will take place Tuesday.

The romance is the result of Samuels' fondness for music. Mrs. de Montford is the widow of the late William de Montford, formerly a director of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad. She went abroad to study vocal music, immediately following the death of her husband.

Six years' instruction under Jean de Reszke transformed her voice into a lyric soprano. She returned to New York, intending to take up grand opera or concert work, but gave it up. She is now in San Francisco, where her inspiration for his play writing.

Samuels has written several plays. Among his best known are "The Florentines" and "The Conflict." He is a member of the Lambs Club in New York and a director of the Society of American Dramatists and Composers, also a former president of both the New York and California Alumni Association of the Sigma Nu Fraternity. He graduated from the University of California with the class of '94.

CONTRA COSTA MEN FILE EXPENSE BLANKS

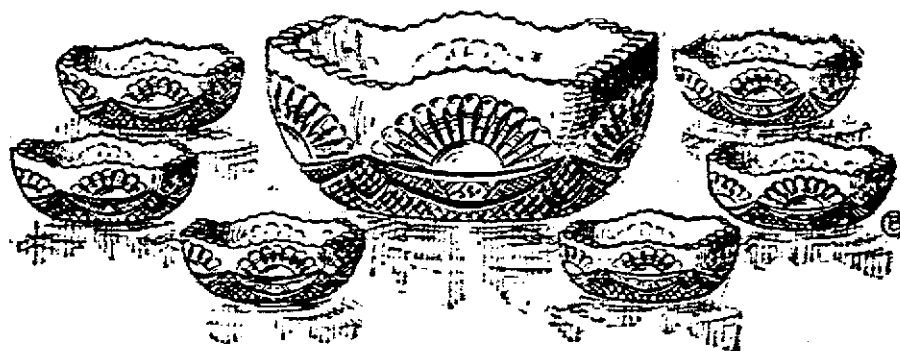

MARTINEZ, Sept. 11.—Charles M. Belshaw, defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, yesterday filed with the county auditor of Contra Costa county his expense account for the primary fight. It gives the total of $8997.20 as his expense in campaigning over the state for the nomination.

J. J. Fox, the successful candidate for constable at Crockett, claims that he did not spend a cent for election expenses and did not even have a card printed.

Sheriff R. R. Veale put down $1105.45 as his share of the "boom fund," and District Attorney A. B. McKenna went to $172 worth for judicial honors. Several other officials have not yet filed their statements.
